

GENERAL INFORMATION.

Classes of Students.

There are four Classes of Students recognized by the Act establishing the University, viz:—

(1) Undergraduates, who are regularly matriculated, and undertake the whole course of study required for the Degree of A. B. This course extends over a period of three years.

(2) Students in Special Undergraduate Courses, who are matriculated, and pursue the studies necessary for the Diploma in such special courses.

(3) Partial Students; who are matriculated and attend two or more courses of Lectures.

(4) Occasional Students, who, on application to the President, may be admitted to a particular course or courses of Lectures.

Candidates for matriculation as Undergraduates are required to present themselves for examination on or before the first Thursday in September, when the Academical year commences. Intending Candidates are recommended to forward their names to the President at least a week previous to the commencement.

Candidates for matriculation as Students in any Special Undergraduate Course, must be able to pass a satisfactory examination in the same subjects as are prescribed for those entering the General Course, omitting the Greek and Latin.

Candidates for matriculation as Partial Students, must be capable of passing such an examination as will prove that they are qualified to make satisfactory progress in the Classes they may wish to join.

Persons desirous of entering as Occasional Students, must apply for permission to the President, and procure from the Registrar Tickets of admission to such Lectures as they may desire to attend.

Admission.

Candidates for matriculation in the General Course, and Competitors for County Scholarships, will be examined in the following subjects:—

(1)—Greek and Latin Languages.

Iliad,	First Book,	} With strict attention to Metres, Prosody, and Parsing.
Horace,	First Book of Odes,
Æneid,	First two Books,
Cæsar's Commentaries,	First Book.
Greek and Latin Grammar.

NOTE.—Candidates for matriculation will be allowed to substitute for the Iliad the first four Chapters of the Anabasis of Xenophon; and, under peculiar circumstances, they may, on representing their cases to the President, and obtaining his sanction, be examined in other Classical Works than those above named.