This involves the assignment of another circuit to Mr. Lawson. Among those which have been mentioned are Hampton, Margate, P. E. I., and Andover. All these are already provided and the problem is to make the shift with the least possible friction. It is said that Mr. Lawson will probably bring up at Andover and that Rev. Vail agreed to come here at the close of the college season, and telegraphed for money, which was wired to him. Word was sent back that he had left for parts unknown, so the money was returned. DOMINION DAY

Was Responsible For a Lot of Drun-

When the fathers of confederation accomplished those things which have resulted in the regular observance of Dominion Day, little did they dream that they were furnishing work for the St. John police, Yet this morning's docket at the police court showed that the holiday was responsible for the destruction of a lot of booze which might have remained safely in the bottles. And the cops, too, had to hump themselves in gathering up the dozen or so discordant celebrants. Of the prisoners, two were badly hurt. Manzer Eatman is in hospital and did not appear in court, but Gideon Harlow, with a nasty gash in his head, bobbed up on time and paid eight dollars for being drunk. Excursionists On the Steamer Victoria Spend the Night on the River.

Those who went to Fredericton with the Y. M. A. of the Portland Methodist church on the steamer Victoria Wednesday enjoyed the sail on the river, the few hours in the celestial city and part of the trip back. There is a part, however, which they did not appreciate and which was not on the programme. It was expected that the steamer would reach Indiantown on the return trip before midnight but in this all were mistaken.

The Victoria with her four to five hundred passengers sot as far as Grand Bay by eleven o'clock when the fog settled down so dense that the captain decided it would be too risky to attempt to reach Indiantown and anchored off Brandy Point.

The passengers realized the situation and made the best of it. Some of the younger people thought it would be a good lark, but the elder and more sedate longed for their homes with their comfortable beds.

The night was passed one way and another and shortly before six o'clock this morning the Vigtoria docked.

The Majestic which left for up river between ten and eleven o'clock last night got up to where the Victoria was anchored and stayed there till daylight.
