Vladivostock Fleet Seen Again-Japs Rout Russians In a Daring Night Attack.

LONDON, July 28 .- The tension in the Russo-British relations has been relaxed and no rupture is now prob able. Count Benckendorff, the Russian ambassador to Great Britain, informed Lord Landsdowne this morning that if Russia had committed a wrong, she was ready and willing to make full reparation, but before any action could be taken in the Knight Commander case, the Russian government must have the opportunity of receiving the report of the commander of the Vladivostok squadron. Lord Lansdowne was not disposed to unduly press the

An advertisement appeared in the morning papers today offering for sale the property and works of the St. John Sulphite Pulp Mill, situated at Mispec, in this county. The advertisement is signed by Ezekiel B. Ketchum and Joseph A. Likely, liquidators. Tenders will close on October 1st. Joseph A. Likely, liquidators. Tenders will close on October 1st.

The advertisement caused considerable talk, although it was generally understood that the property would be offered for sale in this way after the effort to form a local company to purchase it fell through. The question uppermost in the minds of the business people today is what will become of the property? To this inquiry several another than the same property? property? To this inquiry several answers have been made, of course in a

RUSSIAN MINISTER ANARCHIST'S VICTIM

Minister of Interior Von Plehwe, Alleged Instigator of Kisheneff Massacre, Blown to Pieces by Bomb.

Immediately there ensued a scene of the wildest confusion. Police and gend'armes hurried up from every direction and vast crowds gathered about the spot where the minister lay. The Associated Press correspondent was at the scene of the tragedy within five minutes after it occurred. M. Von five minutes after it occurred. M. Von Plehwe's body was lying in the middle of the road. It had been partially covered with a police officer's coat, with the left arm, the bone of which was broken off, projecting. A policeman came up and raised the overcoat in order to re-arrange it, revealing for an instant the strong features of the dead minister, whose head was battered almost beyond recognition. The roadway most beyond recognition. The roadway was strewn for a hundred yards with the wreckage of the carriage and pieces of the red lining of the minister's official overcoat. A few yards from M. Von Plehwe's body lie a shapeless heap Von Plehwe's body lie a shapeless heap of the coachman's remains.

The tragedy occurred on the Zalakonski Prospect, a broad thoroughfare leading up to the Warsaw depot, whence the road turns sharply to the left towards the Baltic railroad station. The exact spot is just before the bridge spanning the circular canal, on the other side of which both stations are situated. The bomb thrower must have known that Minister Von Plehwe would pass the spot this morning, for the minister makes his report to the emperor every Thursday.

The infernal machine was thrown morning next. The sale takes place under an execution issued by John R. McConnell against Mr. Dow. A year or so ago Mr. Dow was the leading entertainer of Fredericton society but at present he is absent from the city. The second son of W. T. It has been suggested that the city secure the property and by so doing secure the property and by so doing secure the water rights to Loch Lomond and the Mispec stream, so that in the future when it may be necessary to go to Loch Lomond for a proper water supply there will be no big bill of damages to pay the owners of the prosupply there will be no big bill of damages to pay the owners of the property.

There is also a street story to the effect that the St. John Street Railway Co. are considering the advisability of purchasing the property and converting the mill into an electric light station as an auxiliary to the city power station, using the water fall as a motive review. The minister's servant, who also was on the carriage box, was badly wounded, and two officers who were driving by in a cab were injured by
