The schooner John C. Gregory, Capt. THEY'RE COMING FROM ALBERT Barnes, is in port to effect repairs caused by damage sustained in the recent heavy gale. The Gregory was bound from Parrsboro to Philadelphia with a cargo of lumber and when off Brier Island encountered a particularly heavy blow during which she had her head stays carried away. Capt. Barnes at once headed for this port and will effect repairs here before proceeding to her destination. While off Brier Island Capt. Barnes says he saw the schooner M. D. S., from this port. She was making good headway when last seen.

COUNTY.

A. H. Steeves, of Coverdale, Albert County, is in the city today with encouraging reports of crop conditions in his section of the province. Agriculturalists there are fairly well satisfied with the season's work and large numbers of them are planning to visit the St. John exhibition. Mr. Steeves informs the Star that he attended the meeting held in Salisbury when Messrs. Labillois and Farris attempted to explain the mysteries of the new Highway Act to the people of Albert County.
