Lighthouse tender Azalea left Woods Holl this morning with a new gas buoy for Pollock Rip Slue, to replace the one reported not lighted by Captain Hand of the tug Plymouth. A lantern was attached to the disabled buoy Tuesday night.

BOSTON, July 11.—Pollock Rip lightship, at present relief lightship No 58, having parted her moorings in Vineyard Sound Sunday, is temporarily moored about 300 gards S of her regular station. The vessel will be returned to her former moorings as soon as possible. Lighthouse tender Azalia is putting a new gas buoy in Pollick Rip Slue in place of the one before reported disabled.

WASHINGTON, D. C. July 12—Notice is given by the Lighthouse Board that on or about July 25, 1900, the following changes will be made in the lights at the station at the entrance to the harbor of Port Jefferson, southerly side of Long Island Sound:

East Breakwater Beacon Light, on the inortherly end of the breakwater, on the east-Lighthouse tender Azalea left Woods Holl

therly end of the breakwater, on the east-erly side of the entrance to the harbor, will be changed to fixed white. Its intensity will therly end of the breakwater, with the rily side of the entrance to the harbor, will be changed to fixed white. Its intensity will be increased by changing it to a lens lantern light, and the height of its focal plane above mean high water will be reduced to 30 feet by placing the light on the apex of the structure instead of suspending it from a bracket above, as at present.

West Beason Light, on the point of the leach on the westerly side of the entrance to the harbor, will be changed to fixed red.

NEW YORK, July 14.—The inspector of the Third Lighthouse district gives notice that a spar buoy, painted red and black in horizontal stripes, has been established in 12 horizontal stripes, has been established in 1 feet at mean low water, to mark a mud scow sunk in Newark Bay, near its junction with the Kill von Kull. The magnetic bearings are:—Corner Stake lighthouse, WNW%W; Bergen Point lighthouse, SE: Passaic lighthouse, NNE 9-16 E. The buoy is 50 feet SE of the wreck.

friends in Mt. Stewart. CHARLOTTETOWN, July 13.-H M. S. Crescent, accompanied by the Quail and the Tribune, arrived in port from Halifax Thursday. The ships leave here Sunday morning for Halifax, thence to Bar Harbor and afterwards to St. John. About 4,000 people attended the Orange tea at O'Leary on the 12th. A heavy electrical storm, accompanied by a downpour of rain, marred the pleasure of the occasion.

The jubilee of Rev. Dr. Murray's entry into the ministry of the Presbyterian church sifty years ago was celebrated on Tuesday at Cavendish, where the doctor was stationed for 25 years. An address was presented by the congregations of Cavendish, New Glasgow and New London, and an other from the P. E. Island presby tery. Rev. D. E. McLeod, pastor of Zion church, presided. Rev. L. G. Macneill, one of Dr. Murray's "boys," delivered an address, as did also the Rev. Daniel Lockesby of Philadelphia, another of the "boys," Hen. A. B. Mc-Kenzie of Charlottetown and others. Rev. Isaac Murray, D. D., was for many years one of the most prominent clergymen of this province. He was born in Pictou county, N. S., in 1824, and engaged in school teaching at the early age of fourteen.

At the annual meeting of the Christian congregations, held at Southport this week, a mission board was constituted to be called the home mission board of Prince Edward Island. The board is composed of Revs. A. N. Simpson, G. N. BEULAH CAMP.

Closing Camp Meeting of the Re- Death of the Wife of Captain Dennis, formed Baptists Sunday Evening. The camp meetings which have been held at Brown's Flats by the Reformed Bartists since the last of June were concluded Sunday evening. In almost every way the series has been the most successful since the inception of the camp meetings. The attendance has been larger than ever before, and more people have resided today 97-16 cents per pound was the at Leulah during the series than in the past. There has, moreover, been an entire freedom from the disorderly element which in times past have to a more or less extent marred the services. This a prominent clergyman among the Reformed Baptists attributes to the stoppage of Sunday after a short visit to her old home in excursions. Financially, the year has been a good one for the Alliance, the receipts being considerably larger than ever before. Practically, during the whole fortheld, addressed by different clergymen, and especially by Evangelist Strouse, who was assisted by Prof. Oakey, a singer of more than ordinary talent.

Sunday services were held throughout the day, commencing with a love at Wolfville on Wednesday of confeast at nine in the morning. At 10.30 sumption, aged 32. Her remains were Rev. G. W. MacLonald, formerly of taken to Yarmouth. The service concluded with an appeal to the unconverted.

In the afternoon the ordinance of baptism was administered to four candidates by Rev. H. S. Cosman of St. John. Rev. G. B. MacDonald of Meductic read the scripture lesson. The bantism took place in a secluded cove off the camp grounds, and the surrounding banks were crowded with people. The concluding service was held in the evening, led by Evangelist Strouse.

Most of the people attending the camp meetings came away yesterday. A large number of those having cottages at the place will stay until the close of the season. This year the Alliance intends making considerable improvements in its buildings, and will be in far better condition to accommodate the people attending. CENTREVILLE.

Big Celebration of the Glorious Twelfth.

CENTREVILLE, July 13 .- The 12th at Centreville was celebrated by a general turnout of people from the surrounding settlements and State of Maine. Geo. F. Briggs acted as master of ceremonies, assisted by Capt. G. D. Perkins, both on horseback. The procession was headed by the Centreville band, followed by the volunteer company of redcoats on horseback. Next came a large platform wagon, on which were seated 36 small boys, having on badges and military caps. They in turn were followed by a covered "What did Freddy say when you caught him coming out of the pantry with his hands stained red?" "He told the truth by saying that he had jammed his fingers."

several wagons containing Polymorfashion, with masks and black faces. These paraded the principal streets in the presence of 1,000 people. Bicycle races and other amusements filled in the time until evening, when a concert was held in Sherwood's hall. A large tent was placed on R. W. Balloch's lot, where the multitude was fed by the Baptist people. Charles Antworth, a native of this county, was found lifeless by the side of the road near the boundary line between Maine and New Brunswick, his horse and carriage standing near him. There were no marks of violence on him. The cause of his death is not known. George Tracy and Miss Niles, also Stanley Nelson and Miss Haines, all of Wicklow, were married last week. Aaron Perkins of this village is very low with pneumonia. Dr. Peppers is in attendance

On Sunday, July 15th, the Bishop of Fredericton visited the parish of Greenwich, and was the guest of Captain and Mrs. Peatman. It was a typical St. Swithen's day, fine, but continually threatening to rain. In the morning the bishop preached in the church at Brown's Flats, and spoke about the work of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. In the afternoon he held a confirmation in the parish church of St. Paul, at Oak Point, when an enormous gathering filled the church and its gallery and the neighborhood of the church outside. The late rector, Rev. D. W. Pickett, who arrived on Saturday from a trip to Rat Portage, said that he had never in his long incumbence seen so many teams about the church. The new rector, the Rev. H. A. Cody, presented thirty-four (34) candidates, 17 men and 17 women, which testifies to the good work he is doing.
