

UNIQUE THEATRE HAS AN EXCELLENT BILL

Two Reel Drama Wins Appreciation of Audiences—
Comedy Film Causes
Roars of Laughter.

"Success," a drama founded on the Biblical passage "What doth it profit a man to gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his soul," is the big feature which the Unique presented to its patrons yesterday. This playlet is in two reels, every inch replete with interest and large audiences who saw the picture pronounced one of the Unique's best attractions of the season.

The picture draws a strong moral lesson. From a moral standpoint, the lesson is convincing, mechanically it is an art perfection as possible, and from the artistic point of view the portrayal of the story by the Beliance players is above the ordinary. The picture is one that is sure to meet with the approval of all who see it.

In the picture is portrayed the story of a playwright whose efforts at dramatization at first meet with failure. His manuscript is returned with the usual note of thanks. In his discouragement he is comforted by a young girl who is also seeking fame as a painter. Eventually his work is recognized, his play produced and he finds himself a success. However, the centre of adulation. His success intoxicates him, however, instead of turning his good fortune to advantage he enters on a life of dissipation and dissipation, orgies follow, he scorns the woman who soothed him in his darker hours, and whose efforts to win honor and fame in the world of art prove unavailing. He despises a failure and turns from his former helpmate. In the midst of one of his orgies he dies, the laurel wreath placed on his head by a boon companion a mockery.

The comedy feature of the programme is a picture "The Turkish Bath" in which are depicted the efforts of a fat man to reduce weight. The different stages which he passes through before succeeding are decidedly humorous while the outcome is more humorous still. So perfect is the success of the reducing experiment that his own wife fails to recognize her reduced hubby.

The Unique's programme affords an excellent hour of entertainment and will be repeated at today's performances.

WHITE'S COVE.

White's Cove, Nov. 10.—Carroll V. Farris, who has spent several weeks at Amherst, is spending a few weeks at his home here.

Charles Reardon, Rowley, Mass., who has been spending his vacation at his home here, returns today on the May Queen.

The steamer has been unable to take all the freight from the lake and produce has been hauled from the wharf some three and four times by parties unable to get it on the steamer. This district should have better accommodation.

Ira D. Farris and wife returned to the city on Friday.

James Durost and wife came up on Saturday and will spend a few days visiting his parents.

Miss Mattie Mullin is spending a few days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John McPee.

Quite a number of the young men will leave this week for J. D. McLaughlin's, Three Brooks, Victoria county, to work for him in the woods.

Miss Cecil McCordie, of North End, is spending a few days at the Cove.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES DISAPPEAR

Chronic Sufferers Always Find Relief from Few Doses.

If you are bothered with backache or rheumatism, or with disagreeable, annoying bladder or urinary disorders to contend with—or suffer with any other of the many miseries that come from weak kidneys, here is a guaranteed remedy you can depend upon.

It is a positive fact that Croxone promptly overcomes such disorders. It soaks right in, cleans out the stopped-up kidneys and makes them filter and sift out the poisonous waste matter from the blood. It neutralizes and dissolves the uric acid that lodges in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; soothes and heals the delicate linings of the bladder.

More than a few doses of Croxone are seldom required to relieve even the obstinate, long standing cases. You will find Croxone entirely different from all other remedies. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it without results. An original package costs but a trifle, and your druggist is authorized to return the purchase price if Croxone fails to give the desired results the very first time.

The Second Puzzle

Correct Solution of the First Puzzle is 6381

All those who submitted 6381 as the solution of the former puzzle are entitled to submit a solution of the second. As more contestants are tied on the solution of the first puzzle than there are prizes, all those who submitted any other than the correct solution are eliminated.

Only one solution of the second puzzle may be submitted. Once submitted the solution cannot be changed.

This puzzle will be given by three insertions, today and tomorrow and Thursday.

In the event of tie in this second puzzle a third puzzle will be presented, and only those who were tied in solving the second puzzle will be permitted to participate in the solution of the third puzzle, unless those tied unanimously prefer to make some other disposition of the prizes. Should a third puzzle be presented, and further ties ensue, the prizes will be equally divided between those tied.
