ADVANCE SHOWING Women's New Fall Boots

The Style Pendulum
Is Swinging Backward
At a conference of the largest association of shoe men held recently in the Astor Hotel, New York, the doom of the gingerbread style of women's shoes was pronounced and a return to the simpler styles decided upon. Our new fall shoes are dainty in style, attractive in appearance and quiet in design. The popular materials will be Gun Metal, Soap Kid, and Patent, in Lace, Button and Side Lace. Cloth Tops are still strongly featured.

CONSCRIPTION NECESSARY FOR PRESERVING DEMOCRACY

Rev. Ralph J. Houghton sees no danger to the people by the adoption of compulsory service—Those who do not work should not have food.

Rev. Ralph J. Houghton preached a very forceful sermon last evening, in the Congregational church, on the subject "Voluntary Enlistment and Defeat, or Conscription and Victory—Which?"
He took his text from Judges 20: 8, 11—"And all the people arose as one man, saying: We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will any of us turn to his house. So all the men of Israel were gathered together against that city—knit together as one man."
"That," he said, "was a time of great stress and storm. A great evil had been done by one of the cities of the tribe of Benjamin, and when the rest of the people heard of it they were naturally indignant, and rose up as one man against that city."
In the same manner, today, the world is in a state of great stress and storm, because one nation has committed a serious wrong, and the other nations have risen up against that nation. Life is at a great crisis today, said the speaker. "Germany in league with Austria and Turkey, has embarked upon a career of moral anarchy in order that she may control and dominate the rest of the world. Let us make no mistake about Germany's attitude these days. In our fear of being called pessimists, let us not be so outrageously optimistic that we can imagine we can well go to sleep, while others are voluntarily fighting our battles."
Germany's Mood.
"Let us make no mistake about the present mood of Germany. Led by a monarch, who monopolizes the favor of the Almighty, a monarch who is the most ardent champion of the divine right of monarchs, since the downfall of Napoleon, a man fairly consumed with the idea of bringing Germany to the front and making Germany (to use his own words) "as powerful and as authoritative as was the ancient Roman Empire." Led by this man's madness, Germany during the past year has certainly inaugurated an era of moral anarchy for which she had been carefully planning and preparing for nearly forty years. Let us make no mistake about this. By sheer brutal force Germany has set out to extend her sway and dominion, until finally the whole world shall be Germanized, and dominated by the Prussian lord.
"Germany must be victorious," that is her slogan, if she cannot be victorious by her swords and her Krupps, then by chlorine poisoning.
Slavery and Despotism.
"Military arrogance has gone mad in Germany, and military arrogance means slavery and despotism. Let us make no mistake about this. The situation of the world is a very serious one tonight. And it is time for every man of us to be serious too.
"It is a sacred and solemn duty that comes to every man of us who does not believe in the enslavement of the world by the German philosophy of government. It is a sacred and solemn duty, I say, for every man to do his

LAWYERS MAKE GOOD SHOWING

Recent list shows those on on active service—Other law news.

In the supplement to the Canadian law list, recently issued, the names of seven St. John lawyers on active service are given. Whether the lawyers of this city are more warlike than in other parts of Canada or whether the local list is more complete, the comparison with other cities is interesting.
The number of lawyers on active service from some other Canadian cities are given in the list as follows: Hal-fax, 3; Montreal, 14; Toronto, 1; Winnipeg, 10; Vancouver, 15.
Those from St. John are: H. H. Mc-Lean, K.C.; R. R. Armstrong, C. F.
Inches, C. H. McLean, W. H. Harris-son, H. J. Smith, E. C. Weyman.

Other changes given in St. John include the appointment of J. R. Armstrong, K.C., as judge of the County Court of St. John, the announcement that Weldon and McLean have associated with them O. Ring and that W. M.
Ryan is now practicing here.
The New Brunswick section of the list also announces that: M. B. Innes of St. John has a branch office in Hampton; M. H. Parlee, late of Sussex, is practicing in Hampton; A. A.
Dyart, late of Moncton, is practicing in Buctouche, M. A. Kelly and J. L.
Ryan are practicing in Campbellton, J. J. Doone in St. Stephen, R. P. Hartley in Woodstock, and W. Limerick, late of Gibson, is practicing in Fredericton.

W. B. Farris, well known in St. John, has left the partnership of O'Shea & Farris in Nelson, B. C., and is now a member of the firm of McCarter & Farris in Revelstoke, B. C.

In Winnipeg, Bonnar & Co., have admitted into partnership T. W. Robinson, and the firm will be known as Bonnar, Trueman, Holman & Robinson.

Opposite the names of several who appear in the list from various parts of Canada is the brief but expressive note, "Killed in action."

that the "German state is a law unto itself."
Conscription.
"The great problem that is facing the Empire today, is to awaken within these men a sense of their responsibility."
"I have been thinking the one thing over, and I have been following trend of thought along this line of late, and I must confess that unless there is a greater voluntary discharge of the personal responsibility I believe we are heading straight for conscription."

"Here let me remind you that if the danger to the interests of human freedom is not lessened, and the danger becomes any more serious, we shall find ourselves compelled to fight, if we will not do so voluntarily."
"Across the border line of Canada there is the greatest republic in the world. A little over fifty years ago a mighty struggle was going on over there, a struggle for the preservation of the Union. And there came a time when the struggle was so bitter, and the battle so hard, that a system of general conscription was inaugurated, by which every man was compelled in some way or other to take up his own share of the great burden of responsibility that was resting so heavily upon the nation."
"That conscription was general I understand somewhere about two years after the beginning of that fearful struggle, it was not considered undemocratic—under the most democratic government of the United States. The government was in danger. It was the duty of every man to take up his share of the responsibility."
"It is true that there were exceptional cases that received careful consideration, such as the young man who was the only support of a widow.
"Alice M. Hoben, Fredericton, N. B." "Ethel L. Brittain, Hampton Station, Kings county."
"M. Kathleen Stanton, St. John, N. B."
"A. Donald Graham, Burt's Corner, York county."
"Bessie E. Hill, Millerton, Northumberland county."
"A Louise Fleiser, Chatham, N. B."
"Eleanor I. MacLean, Starkey's, Queens county."
"Kathleen Attee, Apohaqui, Kings county."
"Mary O. Forsyth, St. Stephen, N. B."
"Greta G. Gaskin, Gunningville, Albert county."
"Vivienne M. Geldart, St. John, N. B."
"Margaret V. Palmer, Dorchester, N. B."

"In his splendid speech at Guild Hall the other day, our own Premier, Sir Robert Borden, gave expression to his own convictions concerning the seriousness of the present struggle when he said: 'I would impress upon all that all for which our fathers fought and bled and died—all our liberties and institutions—all the influences for good, which have been sent forth throughout the world, are in the balance today. We cannot and we must not fail in this war.'" "What then is the duty for the hour? The duty of the hour is summarized, I think, in the words that have chosen for the text this evening:

No Work No Food.
"One would think that the mere fact that the blessings and privileges of modern democracy are in danger of being torn from us would be enough to rouse every man to interest him in the protection and defence.
"It hardly seems so, however. Nor does it seem hardly fair and just that some men should answer the call of responsibility while others do not care at all. It was the conviction of St. Paul, that if a man will not work neither should he eat. It might be a splendid thing to put that Pauline principle in operation in St. John, for the benefit of the all too large number of loafers we have in this city today.
"That same thought of moral accountability and responsibility must be carried into this war. I must confess that I am not so frightened about conscription as some people seem to be. At first I thought it might be against the spirit of our free institutions. But no. Democratic liberty does not mean that every man is a law unto himself. Germany says

OBITUARY.

James A. Paul, who for thirty-two years was messenger in the Public Works Department here, passed away at Hampton Station yesterday morning. He had not been in good health for some time. He was born in St.
John August 1, 1837, but moved to Hampton about ten years ago. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Margaret Smith, a sister of Dr. Smith of Hampton, and two brothers, John T. Paul of Everett, Mass., and Enoch W. Paul of this city.
The funeral will take place from the Methodist church, Hampton, on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.
