

"THAT LITTLE GAME" --- Studies in Expression.It Got Her Out of Bed In Short Time

Mrs. Jarrett's Stubborn Trouble Soon Disappeared After She Took Tanlac.

"When I began taking Tanlac I was in such bad condition from stomach trouble I had been in bed four weeks scarcely able to move or take a spoonful of nourishment, but before I finished one bottle of Tanlac I was able to be up and eat heartily. Now, every trace of my trouble has disappeared."

The above statement was made recently by Mrs. Helen Jarrett, well-known resident of 297 1-2 Goffin street, Halifax, N. S. Further discussing her remarkable recovery Mrs. Jarrett said:

"My stomach went back on me a year or more ago and everything I ate seemed to sour and blast me up terribly with gas. Even a glass of water would cause such severe cramping pains in my stomach they would draw me double. At night I was in such misery I could scarcely move, much less sleep, and I fell off from 124 pounds to 107 pounds. Last September I had such a bad attack I was told I had appendicitis and was advised to have an operation immediately. For four weeks I was flat on my back and suffered intensely almost every minute of the time. My left side and stomach were so sensitive I could hardly bear the weight of the bedclothes, and to move an inch was simply torture. I could take nothing but liquid nourishment and instead of getting better I got worse and weaker all the time."

"This is the condition I was in when I began taking Tanlac and you can imagine my surprise and joy when the first few doses began to relieve my trouble. I have taken two bottles now, and hardly ever felt better in my life. My stomach feels strong and well and I eat everything without the least sign of indigestion. I sleep like a child, have gained seven pounds in weight, and can attend to my household duties now with ease. Tanlac is certainly a wonderful medicine and I can't say too much for it."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co. and P. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat, also take glass of Salts before eating breakfast.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from back ache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

War Experiences Of St. John Soldier

Sapper Brindle's Book, "France and Flanders," is an interesting contribution to the literature of the war.

"France and Flanders: Four Years' War Experience told in Poem and Story," is the title of an attractive volume written by Sapper W. Brindle, a St. John soldier who went overseas with the Canadian Railway Construction Corps, and published by S. K. Smith from the press of J. and A. McMillan. Mr. Brindle writes interestingly of his many experiences in the land of death and desolation made by the fury of the Hun, and the emotions evoked by his varied experiences often find expression in verse. Unusual in form Mr. Brindle's narrative is valuable as showing a soldier's reactions to his changing environment. His powers of observation are well developed, and he throws many interesting sidelights on the life of our soldiers at the front. Most touching upon matters haunted by the tragedy and horror of war as waged by the Hun, but he has a sense of kindly humor which finds amusement in many incidents and scenes incongruously thrusting themselves upon his attention out of a background of misery and death. He tells many interesting stories which illustrate the characteristics of the soldiers of Canada, of England, of Scotland, of France and America. The author's ballads are marked by a simplicity of sentiment and diction which give them a homely but strong appeal.

Contained in the book are a number of souvenir pictures of the visit of the Prince of Wales to St. John last summer.
