Western Ontario School Athletes Repeat Baltimore Triumph at Home---Varsity Beat Soo 13--3

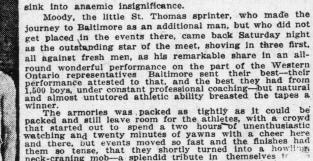

BY BUD FISHER

Huge Growds See Big Dual Meet At Armories Saturday Night-Moody of St. Thomas Outstanding Star of the Whole Night With Three Firsts-Western "U" Lost To Varsity Basketball Five.

West Ontario athletes at the armories Saturday night repeated their triumph over the Baltimore scholastic indoor track team, with five points to the good on a 41-36 final reckoning, in a meet that made anything of the kind attempted before in the city's history, and especially in track events, and almost untutored athletic ability breasted the tapes a winner.

The armories was packed as tightly as it could be packed and still leave room for the athletes, with a crowd that started out to spend a two hours of unenthusiastic watching and twenty minutes of yawns with a cheer here and there, but events moved so fast and the finishes had them so tense, that they shortly turned into a howling neck-craning mob—a splendid tribute in themselves to success of Western University Athletic Association's venture in the huge undertaking of consolidating the ondary schools of Western Ontario into one big in centre for school athletes on the one hand, and on the other asing intellectual standards with widespread competition in literary fields.

Western University and Varsity basketball teams with their intercollegiate fixture, which went to the Blue and White five on a 36-22 score, was the final effort of the night that made the meet the wonderful success it was.

Ahead Early.

The Western Ontario athletes, by taking the 55-yard, 880-yard, 220-yard and broad jump, put themselves beyond the reach of the Baltimore cracks. Moody's performance in the 220-yard sprint, furnished the best thrill of the evening, when he threw off the whole crowd just yards from the tape.

A Adams, the Brantford boy, who did well in the spring meet, clinched things with his win in the jump, with a 9-foot 4%-inch story by the tape line.

Here the program was suspended while Mayor Little presented the relay team members with medals, engraved with the city of Loi don coat-of-arms as a token of Lonpresented the relay team members with medals, engraved with the city of London coat-of-arms as a token of London's appreciation of their work in Baltimore in breaking a world's record; rings to Muir of St. On the five making an equal-members and received a tremendous ovation from the crowd.

The mile and the mile relay events, the last two events, went to the visitors, although Cade, the St. Marys boy, kept Western's lead respectable by getting a second place in the mile.
In this affair Baltimore had two out in front until the eleventh lap, when Stevens came up to relieve Cade, sticking right to his heels, slightly ahead in the bunch that made second place the only thing not sure about the finish. He/had feet to spare at the tape.

Relay Team Patched.

The mile relay, the feature event of the card, found Moody and Cade unable to go any further, and the team lined up: Galloway, Adams, Nunan and Jenkins. It ceased to be the feature event after Galloway, in his sprint, had left Adams with a ten-foot margin arainst Zellinski, the second Yank. Zellinski stretched the Baltimore lead to a good 30 feet, and the best Nunan could do was hold W. Whiteford to it. W. Whiteford never faltered in his turn, although Jenkins gained ten feet in the first lap and threatened in a 40-foot sprint in the second lap to cut it down still more. The Baltimore lad got some of it back in the last lap and finished in 3:45.

Baltimore Team Won At Hamilton, Claim

The Baltimore team went back to Hamilton yesterday. Saturday night after the meet they claimed to have split even on their Canadian tour, and that they really had a two point victory in Hamilton.

"They put the pole-vault among the even's gown there," said one of the team members, "although our officials had told them that we would be unable to enter the event because of the fact that pole-vaulting is barred by the Maryland State Athletic Commission. Naturally they won all the places in the vault, giving them eight points, and six points' margin on the total."

At any rate, the visitors ex-At any rate, the visitors exexpressed themselves as well pleased with the treatment extended to them here, both from the citizens and the Western Athletic Association, in the matter of adjustments about the events on the program.

They were a fine, clean bunch of athletes, and London would welcome more indoor meets of the kind staged at the a mories.

Joe Sargent is going to give everybody a fight for the sobriquet of barber's cat this year, though if the Buffalo graduate sticks around long enough to get acclimated with his present associates. Sargent isn't a rowdy in any sense of the word, but just chesty enough to make himself heard wherever he happens to be. Whether it is a plague which afflicts third basemen it is hard to tell, but the last three pests with the Tigers were guardians of the hot corner by their own choice.

In action on the ball field Sargent looks and acts just like Bobby Roth, the oft transplanted outfielder who now is with the Yankees. Only Joe is an infielder and the shrinking violet who started out with the White Sox, and hit every port in the American League but two plays in the pastures.

Vitt's tactics made him popular with all of the Tigers, while Pinelli was hardbolled and brought down a lot of abuse on his head. Sargent cannot get the laughs like Oscar, but neither does he feel obliged to dodge a fist or avoid a kick, as Pinelli was compelled to.

In spite of his effervescent nature, though, Joe gives promise of developing into a great ball player perhaps not as good at the task of taking care of third base as Vitt, but in a large measure much more able than Pinelli.
