A veritable mania for emigration appears to have seized the inhabitants of many parts of Canada. Reports from the Maritime Provinces are to the effect that nearly every steamship leaving the harbors is packed with people who are leaving their old homes to seek new ones in Uncle Sam's domain. The through trains of the Grand Trunk are also overcrowded with emigrants heading for the Western States. Last Wednesday we personally saw seven colonist cars coming from Montreal filled with people from the Province of Quebec who were on their way to the same destination. Even here in our own vicinity many of our best citizens are leaving to make their future home in Kansas, Nebraska and other Western States.
