

ped the u, in order to cause his Corsican origin to be lost sight of as much as possible; but these have been lost, or wrested from me, during the turbulent scenes I have occasionally witnessed, and in the course of which, I have been pillaged by banditti of various kinds, both in the old and the new world.

L. L. M.

All communications for the Scribbler, are requested to be addressed to Mr. Macculloh, either at Mr. Lane's, or at the Post-Office, Montreal, and not to any other supposed editor, or author, of the work.

Erratum in No. 8. In the advertisement of the Prompter, for York, U. C. read Kingston, U. C.

HOME, from the pen of Erius is received; its merit will entitle it to the earliest possible insertion.

N. B. The plate with the fac similes of Napoleon's and Joachim's signatures may be had separately, price 3d each.

For sale at Messrs. Nickless and Macdonell's, five views of the Falls of Niagara, by Thos. H. Wentworth, price 6s. 3d.

The SCRIBBLER is published every Thursday by JAMES LANE, St. Paul Street, MONTREAL, price 6d per No. or 6s. per quarter, 11s. 6d. for six months, or 22s. per annum, and sent postage free to any part of the British American dominions.