

An Act to enable the Trustees of the Congregation of St. Andrew's Church, in the Village of Lanark, in connection with the Church of Scotland, to sell a certain lot of land.

WHEREAS the Minister, Trustees and other members of the Presbyterian Church of the Town of Lanark, in connection with the Church of Scotland, have, by petition to the Legislature, represented that Park Lot number four, in lot number three in the second concession of the Township of Lanark, in the County of Lanark, but otherwise known as Park Lot number four, on the northerly side of George street, in the Village of Lanark, containing 25 acres, was, by patent from the Crown of date the 8th of January, 1847, granted to certain Trustees therein named and their successors in office for ever, to be elected in the manner provided in the patent from the crown, in trust, as a site for a Church and burial ground, and as an endowment or glebe for the Presbyterian Church of the Town of Lanark, in connection with the Church of Scotland: and whereas the said petitioners have further represented that the present Trustees of the said congregation are Peter McLaren, James McIlquham and John Gordon, and that the said Trustees have been duly elected as such: and whereas the said Petitioners further represent that they are desirous to sell and convey certain four acres and one half an acre, portion of the said Park Lot, and to appropriate the proceeds of the sale towards the liquidation of a certain debt existing on the Church recently erected by the said congregation, in the said village, and also towards the erection of an addition to the Manse belonging to the said church; and whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said Petition: Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada, enacts as follows:

1. The present Trustees of the said congregation of St. Andrew's Church, of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, in connection with the Church of Scotland, in the Village of Lanark, namely: Peter McLaren, James McIlquham and John Gordon, or their successors duly elected as such, in conformity with the provisions of the said patent, or a majority of them or either of them, shall have power to sell, alienate, dispose of, and by a good and sufficient title or titles under their hands and seals to convey that part of the said glebe or Park Lot number four, in lot number three in the second concession of the Township of Lanark, otherwise known as Park Lot number four on the northerly side of George Street in the village of Lanark, which part may be better known and described as follows:—Commencing where a post has been planted at the south-east angle of the said Park Lot, and running north thirty-six degrees west, thirteen chains and seventy-five links, more or less, to the allowance for road between Park Lots numbers three and four; then south fifty-four degrees west, three chains and eighteen links, to a post there planted; then south thirty-six degrees east, thirteen chains and seventy-five links, more or less, to the allowance for road between said Park Lot and Village Lot number eight: then north fifty-four degrees east,
