THE FORESTER'S RETURN.

Denver Republican.

I'm back on the job by the singing
river,

Far from the town with its money-
mad,

Back where the quaking aspens quiver—
And I'm glad.

I'm back to the shack where the trail is winding

'Mid flowers of every scent and hue,
And I felt when I gazed, the hot tears
blinding—

Wouldn't you?

I'm back to the creak of the good old saddle,

To the equine friends that never doubt;
Back to the haunts—with canoe and paddle—

Of the trout.

There's work to do, and there's work in plenty,

And we sleep in the open, if fate so
wills,

But no man is more than one-and-twenty
In the hills.

THE CANADIAN FORESTRY ASSOCIATION

is the national organization for the informing of public opinion in the effort to secure a rational development of the Canadian Forests through the co-operation of national, provincial and municipal organizations and private enterprises. The objects of the Association are:

(1) The exploration of the public domain, so that lands unsuitable for agriculture may be reserved for timber production.

(2) The preservation of the forests for their influence on climate, soil and water supply.

(3) The promotion of judicious methods in dealing with forests and woodlands.

(4) Tree planting on the plains, and on streets and highways.

(5) Reforestation where advisable.

(6) The collection and dissemination of information bearing on the forestry problem in general.

To promote these ends the Association publishes the Canadian Forestry Journal, issues bulletins, arranges for the delivery of free illustrated public lectures, and holds conventions in different parts of Canada.

The Association desires as members all (both men and women) who are in sympathy with this work. The membership fee, which entitles the member to the Journal, the annual report and other literature issued, is one dollar per year, (life membership $10). Applications for membership or requests for information may be addressed to the Secretary, Canadian Forestry Association, Canadian Building, Ottawa, Canada.
