

Tibbits Is Tough

Although the Tibbits house committee is pressing charges against the residence students responsible for damages to person and property there, Tibbits residents say it would be better to let the matter drop.

On the night of January 14, 1976, a large group of people from the men's residences with the intention of "having a rant", visited Tibbits residence.

However, things got out of hand. One Tibbits resident said, "I have lived in residence for five years and have not seen anything like this. I am sure the guys responsible feel bad about it." Another said, "Some of the guys laughed and considered it a big joke."

Several girls were attacked and some had toilet bowl cleaner thrown at them. Telephones were ripped off the walls as well.

"When the guys came, the girls should have stayed in their rooms," said one resident. "It turned ridiculous."

Previous accusations blamed Jones House. Tibbits residents think that the majority of the guys weren't from Jones. However, the ringleader, the person who started the rioting, was from Jones, they said.

Most of the Tibbits girls interviewed said they would like to forget the entire matter and just let things lie as they are. They felt this would be the best for all concerned, especially for the persons directly involved in the incident.

Some girls were taken to the campus infirmary because of caustic burns for this liquid.

Student Missing

Jack Mbiza, a first year mechanical engineering student, has been missing from UNB since January seventh.

Mbiza is an overseas student from Malawi, in East Africa. Sargent Porter of the Fredericton city police said they have had Mbiza on their missing persons list since January 12. So far city police have contacted other police forces in Canada and the United States to try to determine his whereabouts. Porter added that city police have done all they possibly can to try to locate him but because Mbiza is 25 years of age he is an adult and this hampers their search somewhat.

Mbiza vanished without a clue leaving his clothes in his Neville House residence and money in his bank account. Apparently both campus security and city police have made inquiries around campus but no light has been cast on Jack Mbiza's mysterious disappearance.
