

Red Shirts fight for playoff spot

By Sean Dockrill

The UNB Red Shirts took another step back in their race for a place in the AUAA finals. The Shirts, who are presently tied for second place in the AUAA western conference with UPEI, battled their first place eastern counterparts, the Acadia Axemen, and were sliced by the slim margin of two to one.

Mike "The Spike" Connelly scored UNB's only goal of the game when he nailed in a stray ball that the Acadian defense haplessly left lingering on the 18-yard line. Ross "Spiderman" Knodell miscalculated his chance to tie the game when he foiled a penalty shot attempt. This dwarfed the Shirts' chances of coming back and allowed Acadia to hold on to their victory.

Sunday's game, which pitted the red clad UNB'ers against the Dalhousie Tigers, was a match where ironically, the Shirts pulled ahead and the Tigers played the catch-up game. Five minutes into the competition, Jamie Pollock dazzled everybody with a brilliant left foot volley that he rammed by the Tiger tender and into the centre of the net. It took Dalhousie, who defeated the mighty Mount A squad 3-1, approximately 70 minutes in order to retaliate and tie up the game 1-1.

UNB's first glance of the Red Shirt line-up saw a dominant crew of Shirts prevail over the fearsome Saint Mary's Huskies, a team that only last year was runner-up in the CIAU finals. This proved to be a good sign for the upcoming season.

However, things have taken a turn for the worse throughout the Red Shirts' regular season and because of last weekend's results against Acadia and Dal, the Shirts are forced to battle the UPEI Panthers in a last bid for a spot in the AUAA finals. Can the Shirts carry on their tradition of making it to the AUAA finals? Come and find out on Sunday, October 27, at Chapman Field at 2:00 p.m.

Chess

This article utilizes algebraic notation to record moves. Here is how it works: each square is identified by a letter and a number (e.g. e4 - see diagram for illustration). To indicate a move, put the initial of the piece (note: N stands for knight) and then the square to which it moves (e.g. Bh7). For pawn moves, just write the square the pawn is going to (c2-c4).

Here is a game between Philippe Cliche (White) and the writer (Black). It was played in the third round of a tournament last Sunday.

1. e2-e4 e7-e6 2. d2-d4 d7-d5

Both players grab as much space in the centre as possible.

3. Nc3 Bf8-b4 4. e4xd5 e6xd5 5. Qd1-f3...

A questionable move. White would do better to develop his minor pieces, e.g. 5....Nf3 or 5....Bd3.

5....Ng8-f6 6. Bf1-d3 0-0 7. Ng1-e2 Bc8-g4 8. Qf3-f4 Bg4xe2 9. Kex2 Rf8-e8 10. Bc1-e3 c7-c5 11.

Ke2-f3 Nb8-c6 12. Ra1-d1 Nf6-h5

Black is trying to attack White's exposed king.

13. Qf4-f5 g7-g6 14. Qf5-g5 Nc6xd4 15. Kf3-g4 Qd8-d7 16. Kg4-h4 Nb4xc3

A mistake. Black should have opened the position up further by playing 16....c5-c4, with the threat of 17....Bb4-e7.

17. b2xc3 Nd4-e6 18. Qg5-g4 Qd7-d8 19. Kh4-h3 Qd8-c8 20. Kh3-h4 Qc8-d8. Draw.

Black only had five minutes left on his clock to White's 30 minutes so Black offered a draw and White accepted.

The UNB/STU Chess Club meets at the Regent Chess Club, 81 Regent St., every Tuesday at 6 p.m. The Club is also open every day for casual play.
