Ottawa, 1st March, 1905.

Sir,

I enclose herewith for your information and report thereon, copy of a letter of the 23rd ultimo, from Mr T.W. Aspdin, in which he states that two of his Indians, who are good workers and prosperous are in need of seed, owing to what they had having been frozen, and asking for instructions in the matter. I shall be glad to receive a recommendation from you in this matter case.

Your obedient servant.

Secretary.
