But

Dear Sir

In answer to your letter I received last Saturday I think it best for me under the circumstances to wait till the spring, or until you move into the country.

I don't care about putting Geoffrey out for another person to look after, & I am sure I could never manage with him in an apartment.

I should like to have something dignified arranged, so that I can make my plans here.

I have enclosed a photo of Geoffrey;

Mrs King I hope is better, but the weather is so against her, she must take care,

W. L. Mackenzie King
Yours sincerely
Ottawa
