

CASSELL'S HOME HANDBOOKS

A series of useful Volumes for every
Household, averaging from 200-300 pages.

The Elements of Modern Dressmaking

By J. E. DAVIS. Practical papers by an experienced writer on dressmaking, illustrated with numerous diagrams.

Vegetarian Cookery

By A. G. PAYNE. Appeals to those who ought to adopt a vegetarian diet on account of their health, and to those who would follow it with great advantage also to their pockets.

Practical Home Cookery

By A. G. PAYNE. A number of articles on home cookery, suited to housewives of moderate means. Simple and easy recipes are given for attractive dishes, and there is a special chapter on diet for invalids.

Advice to Women

A useful and instructive volume, by FLORENCE STACPOOLE, on the care of the health before, during, and after confinement, with helpful hints on the care of the new-born infant.

Practical Housekeeping

By PHYLIS BROWNE. A collection of practical hints on the management of ordinary households, intended for the use of those who are just beginning the responsibilities of a home.

The Home Lawyer

A volume which explains the law for householders and business men in so clear a manner that it can be comprehended with ease and satisfaction. It furnishes valuable legal advice on a variety of subjects.

The Home Physician

The commoner ailments of life can be warded off without external aid with the help of this useful volume. Its explanations are full and simple, and the prescriptions popular in style.

Cookery for Common Ailments

By A FELLOW OF THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS AND PHYLIS BROWNE. A practical dietetic guide to the invalid, in which the food problem is stated not merely in scientific terms, but in the form of actual dishes which will prove digestible and palatable.

The Making of the Home

By Mrs. SAMUEL A. BARNETT, contains in its pages much useful information on an important subject of domestic economy.

Our Sick, and How to Take Care of Them

By FLORENCE STACPOOLE, an experienced and practical nurse. Tells in a plain, simple manner how the sick should be nursed.

Etiquette of Good Society

Edited and revised by LADY COLIN CAMPBELL. A handy little volume which describes in detail the etiquette to be observed on all special occasions.

Poultry and Profit

By WILLIAM W. BROOMHEAD. It is written in a thoroughly modern and practical fashion, with helpful illustrations, likely to be of real help to those seeking for profit.

Cloth, 1/- net. At all Booksellers, or post free 1/3 from

CASSELL AND COMPANY, LIMITED, LA BELLE SAUVAGE, LONDON, E.C.4