The names on the last four pages are those of local clergymen at dispersal centres who are giving their services to the chaptains department without pay or all wrances.

REPATRIATION