

The Birth of Cityhood 1912

In the pages of this Book we give you Berlin---Old and New---we trace her history from 1799 crossed which to Land, and hundred eminence this respect and women overcame them; the Anglo-go out settle, the time when her first hardy pioneers in the border into the then unknown forests them proved to be indeed the Promised outline the events which for over one years have led up to her position of pre-as a City as we know it in 1912. From position to-day we look back with and admiration upon those men who battled with difficulties and they had the true spirit of Saxon and Teutonic races, to into the unknown to explore, and cultivate. Some day a history worthy of the settlement of Waterloo County will be written. We realize this is but a sketch but we give it to you as a forerunner.
