

London Fence Limited,
Portage la Prairie

Dear Sirs,—Last year I built about two miles of "LONDON" Fence and I consider it the Best and Cheapest fence on the market. My garden and pig fence has ten strands: No. 9 top and bottom, No. 12 center wires woven every 12 inches. The farm fence has six strands: No. 9 top and bottom, No. 12 center wires woven every 18 inches. This makes a good stock fence.

I can heartily recommend the LONDON Fence, and I have conceit enough to think I have the best stock fence in the township, barring none. Considering the Strength and Durability of the LONDON the cost is reasonable. Thanking you again for your kindness and attention and wishing you success.

Yours truly,
GEO. STONEHOUSE,

Gentlemen,—The LONDON Fence which I had built last season by Mr. R. G. Ferguson, local agent, has given me entire satisfaction and is highly thought of by all who see it. I think it is superior to any fence I have seen for Neatness, Strength and Durability, and the proper fence for this country.

Dear Sirs,—Two years ago I employed your local agent, Mr. Thos. Frank, to build a fence around a hog pasture. This has given me perfect satisfaction and it affords me much pleasure in recommending the LONDON to anyone desiring to have a fence that will hold anything in the animal line to be seen on a farm.
