

Foundlings under the care of the Commissioners during the same period. A sum not exceeding one hundred and sixty-six pounds seven shillings and ten pence currency, to pay a like sum owing by the Commissioners for the board and lodging of Foundlings in the District of Quebec. A sum not exceeding two hundred pounds currency, to reimburse to the Grey Nuns at Montreal, the additional expences incurred by them during the last year, in consequence of the Epidemic which then prevailed in the Province.

Money may be advanced to the Commissioners, under whose superintendence the sums appropriated during the last Session, were applied and expended. Proviso.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the several sums of Money mentioned in the preceding section, may be advanced to the Commissioners under whose superintendence the sums appropriated during the last Session of the Provincial Parliament, for the support of the same Institutions, were applied and expended. Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of this Province, to remove such Commissioners and to appoint others in their stead, if he shall deem it expedient.

Commissioners to be the legal Tutors of Foundlings in this Districts.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said Commissioners, or those appointed in their stead, shall be and they are hereby constituted during the time they shall remain such, the legal tutors of the Foundlings in their respective Districts, and shall have the same powers as if they had been appointed as such Tutors according to the ordinary course of the Law.

Every person to whom the expenditure of Public Money has been entrusted to account.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that every person to whom shall entrusted the expenditure of any portion of the monies hereby appropriated, shall make up detailed accounts of such expenditure, showing the sum advanced to the accountant, the sum actually expended, the balance, if any, remaining in his hands, and the amount of the monies hereby appropriated to the purpose for which such advance shall have been made, remaining unexpended in the hands of the Receiver General, and that every such account shall be supported by Vouchers therein distinctly referred to by numbers corresponding to the numbering of the Items in such account, and shall be made up to and closed on the tenth day of April and tenth day of October in each year, during which such expenditure shall be made, and shall be attested before a Justice of the Court of King's Bench or a Justice of the Peace, and shall be transmitted to the officer whose duty it shall be to receive such account, within fifteen days next after the expiration of the said periods respectively.

Application of the monies

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the due application of the monies appropriated by this Act, shall be accounted for to His Majesty, His Heirs