NEWS OF THE WORLD.

All the important events of the week ending on Tuesday evening.

It is feared that peach and other small fruit trees in Western Ontario have been damaged by the frost.

One Logan, a tanner, has defaulted the Pictou Bank of $90,000 with the assistance of the cashier of the institution.

Wednesday afternoon, while felling a tree on the farm of Mr. Easterbrook, near Campbellville, either the whole or part of the tree struck and killed Wm. Kay instantly.

Twenty thousand copies of the Scott Act printed in French and bearing the endorsement of His Grace the Archbishop, have been prepared and are now being circulated in Quebec.

On Wednesday, Wm. McKay, of Georgetown, dropped dead while curling on the rink.

Thirty-one million dollars worth of gold was obtained from mines in the United States last year.

The Montreal ice carnival was inaugurated on Monday. The city is overflowing with strangers, many Americans being present. The great ice palace is an imposing structure.

The proprietor of a fashionable skating rink in Boston has been fined $50 and costs in two suits, for refusing to allow colored men to skate in his establishment.

Mrs. Grant has given her consent to Vanderbilt's proposition to secure to the Government the perpetual possession of General Grant's war relics and souvenirs of his journey round the world.

The expense incurred by Hungerford township, Hastings, in allaying the Smallpox epidemic reached $9,000. The total number of cases was 205, of which 46 proved fatal.

The Licensed victuallers of Stormont, Dundas, and Glengarry will enter a new action to test in the Supreme Court the constitutionality of the Scott Act. A legal firm in Cornwall are now working up the case.

It is intended to erect a new building for a Protestant orphanage in Ottawa at a cost of $20,000. There is at present $4,299 to the credit of the building fund in the bank. The total number of inmates in the home in 1884 was 88.

There is in the conservatory of the Horticultural Gardens at Toronto an American aloe flowering. It takes 60 to 70 years to reach maturity according to climate. The last one heard of at maturity was in Rochester in 1879, when nearly 50,000 people paid to see it.

A Kingston telegram says:—On Thursday last a vault at Sydenham was broken open and the body of the late John Wright who was 60 years old was stolen. Yesterday morning the body of the late Mrs. Keeley was missed from the vault at Rainton.

At St. John's (Nfld.) Richard Harper, Michael Cody and seventeen other Catholics, charged with the murder of the Orangeman, Wm. French, on St. Stephen's Day, were acquitted. But they were immediately recommitted, charged with the murder at the same time of the three others, Bray, Nichols and Calahan.

The most daring robbery ever committed happened in Hamilton on Wednesday evening. About nine o'clock two men stepped in front of Taylor's jewellery store, broke a pane of glass and abstracted about $500 worth of jewellery. Numbers of people were passing and a dozen saw the affair, but no one interfered.

Herbert Gladstone, addressing a meeting at Leeds, said the fact could not be denied that England was on the eve of a great crisis. He had no misgivings in regard to the franchise, which would have a great effect in the future upon the composition of political parties. He anticipated a renewal of the Crimes Act in Ireland, and its vigorous enforcement.
