THE TRIP TO DULUTH

Ridgetown Young Lady
Describes The Journal's
Trip

Was Much Enjoyed
By All of The Ladies.

A Ridgetown young lady, who was among the St. Thomas Journal's party on the trip to Duluth, sends The Planet the following interesting account of the outing:

Nothing could have been more successful or more pleasant than the free trip to Duluth given by the St. Thomas Journal to the twelve ladies who won the highest vote in St. Thomas and district. It was on the part of the paper a big advertising scheme and as such it exceeded their wildest expectations. Yet this was not the most successful part of the contest. The trip itself fully compensated all who took part for their trouble.

The steamer Huronic was chosen by the Journal as the best to take the party up the lakes to Duluth, and if the Journal always makes as wise a choice in other matters it will be a very successful paper. No one could be more kind and considerate to a guest than the officers of the Huronic were to the Journal girls. Everything that could in any way add to their comfort and enjoyment was speedily granted, and everything and everybody at their service. Music and dancing provided the evening entertainment and all were told to have a good time.

In the dining room the boys, with their pleasant manners, courteous, genial, kindness and excellent meals are favorites with everybody. Their chief knows how things ought to be cooked and, better still, he cooks them that way all the time. No "off" days with Andy.

The good time on board the ship, coupled with the pleasant receptions given the party in Port Arthur, Fort William and Duluth, made the trip one to be remembered for their lifetime by the lucky girls. Even the weather man smiled on them, and only one rainy afternoon and stormy night were sent to destroy their peace of mind. These even did not stop their fun, for the saloons and staterooms of the Huronic are equally as comfortable and cozy as the parlors in any of their homes.

Every Journal girl voted that week the best week of her life, and will always have three cheers ready for the Huronic wherever she appears on the horizon.

EMBARRASSING QUESTION

The fight against the influx of Japs in British Columbia threatens to raise an embarrassing question because of the treaty existing between Great Britain and Japan, article 2 of which provides that "the subject of each of the two contracting parties shall have full liberty to enter, travel, or reside in any part of the dominions and possessions of the other contracting party, and shall enjoy full and perfect protection for their persons and property."

The Japanese consul-general to Canada, Nossé, has given notice that Japan will not tolerate any idea that will discriminate against his countrymen. The British Columbian insist on restrictive legislation, but Canada is, by consent, a party to the treaty.

SHAFTS TOO NARROW

"Heard a rather good story about one of the recently arrived Englishmen to-day," was the announcement made by Real Estate Agent Arthur Dunn, just as a Planet reporter dropped in at Dunn & Heyward's offices on Fifth street this morning. A group of interested listeners awaited Art's story, which was in effect as follows:

"Andrew Crow, down the river, recently hired a likely looking chap who had just come out with one of the train-loads of immigrants. The man was willing, and appeared to be anxious to learn, but he did not know much about farm work. One day recently, Mr. Crow told him to go back in one of the fields to the rear of the farm, take a horse along with him, and bring in a plow which had been lying out there."

"The Englishman had been gone almost an hour, and Mr. Crow was beginning to wonder what had happened to him, when he turned up with the horse, but no plow. There was a look of great worry on the young man's face."

"Why, where is the plow?" asked Mr. Crow.

"It's just like this, boss, there hasn't no way of hooking up to that blasted concern," replied the perplexed Britisher. "I've been trying for the last hour to get this blooming animal into the shafts, and they ain't wide enough."

MANY VALUABLE CANINES VICTIMS OF POISONING

Queen Street Residents Are Highly Indignant Over The Work Of Some Evil-minded Person — The Police Are Investigating

"If we could find out who the miscreant is who has been poisoning the dogs down our way, there is a big chance that he would be tarred and feathered," was the hot remark of an enraged Queen street resident this morning. Four valuable dogs belonging to citizens in the southern end of the city, died yesterday, as the result of strychnine poisoning, and it is reported that two more died on Lorne avenue, from the same poison, this afternoon. The dogs poisoned yesterday were as follows:

Fox terrier pup, owned by Clarence Barfoot, Lorne Ave.
Pointer hunting dog, owned by Robert Cucksey, Queen St.
Collie dog, worth $50, owned by Thomas Taylor, Grey St.
English setter bird dog, owned by David Nagle, Queen St.

Besides these, another dog which had apparently partaken of the same cruel dose, showed symptoms of poisoning, but was doctored in time to save his life.

Mr. Taylor says that he would not have taken fifty dollars for his dog, as it was the best cattle dog he ever owned. He told the police this morning that he would give $25 to the party who will furnish information which will lead to the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who put the poison out for the dog.

All of the dogs appeared to die from the same poison—strychnine, applied to a dry bone. Mr. Barfoot's dog was noticed carrying one of these bones in his mouth just a short time before it fell over and died.

The police are at present making an investigation, and they have some slight clues as to who the party was who left the poison for the dogs. What they are now looking for is proof which will lead to a conviction. To-day Officer Dodson is making a call at all the local drug stores and looking over the poison books. He had been at some of the drug stores when the reporters called this morning, but so far he said he had not found memoranda of poison recently purchased. It is the belief of some that the party who did the poisoning bought the strychnine in Detroit.

Chatham May Secure a Michigan Central Ry. Station

The Michigan Central Railway may shortly erect a fine, up-to-date depot in Chatham. This information was secured by The Planet from an excellent source this morning.

It is understood that the Michigan Central authorities are at present trying to make negotiations with the Chatham, Wallaceburg and Lake Erie Railway Company to carry their passengers from Chatham to Charing Cross, and there make connections with the trains on the fast American road.

This rumor is strengthened by the fact that the Michigan Central people have been delaying the C. W.

& L. E. by preventing them from laying a diamond across their tracks at Charing Cross. The M. C. R., it is now understood, would be quite willing to settle this matter to the satisfaction of the C. W. & L. E. people if the latter will consent to the above-mentioned agreement.

No information has been gained as to where the Michigan Central intends to build its Chatham station, but it is quite likely that it will be erected along the electric line's tracks somewhere within the city limits, and within easy access of all citizens.

ARABS HAVE DRAWN OFF

Normal Conditions Being Resumed Now at Casablanca

Sharp Engagement With General Drude's Force
—Heavy Losses

Casablanca, Aug. 28.—A sharp engagement between the French and the Moors occurred six miles from Gen. Drude's camp.

A reconnoitering party of spahis came in touch with the enemy who opened a heavy fire on the cavalrymen. The latter replied with effect, but retreated under instructions, with the object of attracting the attention of the French commander to the Moors' advance.

Reinforcements with artillery were promptly forwarded to the scene of the fighting with the result that the Moorish force was driven back into the hills.

No loss on the French side is reported.

Troops for Casablanca.

Tangier, Aug. 28.—It is declared that a large body of native cavalry has been seen bearing down on Casablanca from the direction of Morocco City.

Mashinin, the fanatical priest, has left Safi, and it is reported that he is going to Fez.

The European residents of Fez, excepting the Germans, left Monday for Ksarash. They were escorted by troops. No difficulties are feared, as the Ksarash road is reported to be safe.

No Holy War.

Paris, Aug. 28.—The Matin's Tangier correspondent says that Marshal Haig declares that he is opposed to a holy war, but that the leading Catholics are trying to force him to proclaim one.

To Remove Suspicion.

Tokio, Aug. 28.—The Official Gazette yesterday published certain instructions from the Premier to the local authorities which dwell upon the importance of removing the feelings of suspicion and prejudice that might still remain in the minds of some people against Russia and the Russians.

The Premier emphasizes the necessity of carrying into practice the spirit of the agreement recently concluded between Russia and Japan and making the relations of both nations as friendly as possible.

NATIONALISTS ARE JAILED

M. P. For North Longford
And Forty Others
Arrested

Charged With Inciting
Riots—More Trouble
Feared

Longford, Ireland, Aug. 28.—Jas. P. Farrell, Irish Nationalist member of Parliament for North Longford, and forty other persons were arrested early yesterday morning and are now being tried by a special court, convened for the purpose, on the charge of taking part in "an unlawful assembly likely to cause riot."

Mr. Farrell has been holding meetings throughout his constituency at which exciting scenes occurred between Nationalists and members of Sinn Fein Society, in addition many cattle have been driven from the grazing land district, which the prosecution alleges was encouraged by Mr. Farrell and other speakers. Large forces of police are being despatched here, trouble being anticipated.

Mr. Farrell is the editor and proprietor of The Longford Leader, a Nationalist newspaper circulating in the counties of Longford, West Meath, Roscommon and Leitrim, and is the author of a "History of the County of Longford," and other books. At the general election in 1900 Mr. Farrell was returned unopposed from North Longford, succeeding Justin McCarthy, who resigned.

Order More Police.

Dublin, Aug. 28.—Last night's issue of the official Gazette contained proclamations by the Lord Lieutenant in Council declaring that certain counties and districts are in a state of disturbance and empowering the Lord Lieutenant to order extra forces of police to those parts of the country.

Leg Severed By Rope.

Belleville, Aug. 28.—Morgan Terrill, employed at the Lehigh Portland Cement Co.'s works, had his left leg taken off Monday night on the arrival of the steamer Salaberry. He had charge of a line on the steamer and when fastened to the wharf, his leg became tangled in a coil and was squeezed off, a short distance below the knee. He was 60 years old and married, with one child, and a subscription is being taken up.

HORRIBLE CRIME

Albert Stemmelen, 270 Baldwin avenue, Detroit, walked calmly into central police station last night at 8 o'clock, and with an even, emotionless voice, announced to Lieut. of Detectives Beat High, the details of the murder of his baby girl, Helen, the innocent, fair-haired victim of a father's mind distorted by religious fanaticism.

In his confession to the police, Stemmelen said, "I threw my child from the Belle Isle bridge. I gave her to God to atone for my sins. I want to give myself up to the police."

It is the general opinion that Stemmelen is insane.

JOHN D'S TROUBLES

Chicago, Aug. 27.—John D. Rockefeller is having his troubles in collecting $73.95 from the United States Government for his travelling expenses and witness fees in the recent hearing in the Federal Court before Judge Landis.

In making application for the amount due him, Mr. Rockefeller declared that he had travelled 1,149 miles to attend the session of the Court.

He did not say, however, whether he came from Pittsfield, Mass., or Cleveland, Ohio. The Government is, therefore, holding the money until it receives official information as to where Mr. Rockefeller started from when he came to Court.

HANGMAN'S ROPE SNAPS

Indiana, Pa., August 27.—The first hanging in this county for more than twenty years took place here to-day and was not a success, as, owing to the breaking of the rope, the operation had to be repeated.

The victim of the law was Carmine Renzo, aged 45 years, and weighing 175 pounds. The weight of the man and the drop of five feet proved too much for the strength of the rope, which snapped when the trap was sprung, precipitating Renzo to the ground. The jail attendants hurriedly loosened the rope around his neck while others adjusted a new rope to the scaffold, and the man, already half dead, was carried to the platform and the lever sprung again. This time the execution was successful.

The crime which Renzo expiated to-day was the murder of his sweet-heart, Marian Bearno, aged 15, at her home in Ernest, two years ago. It had been agreed that Renzo should marry the girl providing he paid the passage of herself and parents to this country. He did this, and when the girl refused to wed him, he shot her.
