JAPS ADVANCE ALL ALONG LINE

Their Front Extended Fifteen Miles and Russian Outposts Were Driven in.

Vast Camp of Japanese Discovered -Big Battle is Inevitable-Oku Occupies Kai Ping.

St. Petersburg, July 8. - General akharoff, commander of the eastern rmy, in a long despatch to the general staff, dated yesterday, reports outpost skirmishes over a wide territory throughout July 5 and July 6, which indicates a general advance of the Japanese, who are driving back the Russian advance posts. Sakharoff says the Russian losses during the fighting on July 6th have not been definitely ascertained, but it is known that two officers and fifteen men were killed or wounded. He says :-In general, we observed on July 6th, that the enemy was taking the offen-

ADVANCE CONFIRMED.

The War Office confirms the reports of the Japan-se advance toward Kai-Chou, as reported in these despatches yesterday, but is inclined to regard the movement as a demonstration south, while changing the disposition of troops to make an attack elsewhere. Danger is considered to be more tikely from the direction of Ta or Fen Shui Passes, although there is no sign of a movement in force there. Yet the advance on Kai Chou extends over a front of fitten miles, and includes about 30,000 men. The Japanese centre is at Tai Si Shan, on the Chou River, eight miles south-east of Kai-Chou. Constant skirmishing with Generals Samsonoff and Chirikoff is occurring as the Japanese move forward along the ADVANCE CONFIRMED. the Japanese move forward along the railroad from the Siu Yen mountains,

MUCH PRAISE FOR THE 24TH

gistic Over Maple City Soldiers and Their Fine Bands.

Colonel Rankin was Very Popular-Many Kind Words From the Local Press.

The Wallaceburg Herald-Record of vesterday says editorially of the visit of the Maple City Regiment to the glass town on Dominion Day:

The 24th Kent Regiment is worthy of all the nice things being said of it. Fre regiments, if any, in Canada can show a finer body of men or a better qualified state of officers. The two qualified state of officers. The two bands, brass and bug'e, which accompanied 'them, are a revelation in themselves. The bugle band especially is a wonder. It compares with great advantage to itself with the bugle bands of the crak regiments of cities ten times as large as Chatham. The military band is, although a comparatively young organization, a splendid group of musicians.

"Col. Rankin, who commands the regiment, is a fine soldier and a perfect gentleman. His officers and men respect him in the highest and best sense.

"At two o'clock the regiment marched to the agricultural grounds and for an hour gave an exhibition of drill which it was a pleasure to see. Those who saw nothing clse are well pleased to have paid admission Long all Night Session of Democratic Convention With no Vote for Nominee.

St. Louis, July 9, 3 a. m .- After all-night session the Democratic national convention at three o'clock this norning was apparently still quite a long way off from nominating a candiate for President. Confusion arising now from spontaneous demonstrations for Parker, and again from apparently pre-arranged outbursts marked the proceedings of the con-vention. The anti-Parker men seizvention. The anti-Parker men seized several opportunities to shout for Hearst, but as a rule the demonstrations were confined chiefly to the galleries, and were short lived. The acclaiming of Parker, on the other hand, was marked by genuine enthusiasm, the delegates and spectators vieing with one another to see who could cheer the loudest.

Not until the early hours of the morning did the sweltering mob show any signs of weariness. Then speakers were told by the galleries to "out it out" when they showed a tendency to talk too long or were allowed to shortly afterward, after some discussion, it was decided to limit the seconding speeches to four minutes each. Parker, Hearst, Gray, Miles and Cockrell were placed in nomination, the two first and the Missouri veteran being the only ones whose names evoked enthusiasm.

CITY STORE BURGLARIZED

Midnight Mechanics Effect an Entrance into J. A. Wilson's Establishment.

Rifled the Cash Register Securing Some Cash-Was a Neat and Orderly Job.

J. A. Wilson's grocery store, corner of Queen and Wellington streets, was morning. Entrance was made into the store through a back window by breaking two panes of glass and the frame of the window. The cash register was rifled and about seven register was rifled and about seven or eight dollars in cash was secured. The money is the only thing Mr. Wilson misses, tobacco and other things assually taken by burglars were left alone.

Mr. Wilson wishes to extend his thanks to burglar or burglars for making such a neat job, as the rule in these cases is to leave a rough house behind.

The whole thing has been done so

The whole thing has been done so well that Mr. Wilson thinks it must have been some one who knew the ropes pretty thoroughly and not as one would probably suppose by a circus crook.

The matter is being investigated by the police. No clue has been discovered as yet.

A SPLENDID WORK

Many Eulogistic Comments on the Admirable Book of Mr. Edwin Bell.

Edwin Bell, LL. B., one of the Chatham old boys who has made his re-union permanent, has been indusriously employed during his year's bsence in Toronto in writing a textbook on the law of Landlord and Tenant, which has recently been published by the Canada Law Book Company. This work has been very culogistically reviewed by the Toronto Globe, Mail and News, as well as by the Law Times and Law Journal. We quote the following from the notice which appeared in the jubilee edition of the Giobe of last Saturday: Mr. Bell has just received a letter from the Royal Colonial Institute, which is the recognized centre in England for the dissemination of invention. The anti-Parker men seized several opportunities to shout for Hearst, but as a rufe the demonstrations were confined chiefly to the galleries, and were short lived. The acclaiming of Parker, on the other hand, was marked by genuine enthusiasm, the delogates and spectations vieing with one another to see who could cheer the loudest.

This comprehensive work of about one thousand pages treats of the rights and liabilities of Landlord and Tenant in an able and exhaustive manner. The chapters upon rent and distress may be pointed out as particularly worthy of attention. The subject matter is divided and arranged in a clear and logical way, so much so that a glance divided and arranged in a clear and logical way, so much so that a glance at the table of contents, without reference to the index, is generally sufficient to locate the point desired. The author, who is already well known to the legal profession as joint author of Bell & Dunn's 'Law of Mortgages in Canada,' is to be congratulated upon this further addition to our Canadian law books. The work is published by the Canada Law Book Company, and in paper, type and binding is quite up to the best English law publications."
