At the Opera House to-night and Saturday night will be shown a Pathe Weekly reel with interesting items from all parts of the world. One view in particular will prove particularly interesting to our patrons as it shows the commencement exercises at the University of Pennsylvania including a parade of the Alumni on the Campus. Other reels will be 'Ingenuity,' 'Bunny and the Dog' and 'A Messenger to Kiarney.' Vitaphone and Selig production.

The First Wolfville Troop of Boy Scouts are preparing for another entertainment which will be given in the Opera House on Friday evening, Nov. 22nd. An excellent programme will be presented, to include Camp Fire Songs and Games, Physical Drill, Lantern Views, etc., and the presentation of 'Pocahontas,' an Indian Play. Those who enjoyed the last entertainment by the Boy Scouts will look forward with pleasant anticipation to the coming event. We hope to see a very generous patronage given to the Boy Scouts.

Asphalt Roofing.—Best on the market, sand surface, needs no painting. Good for 30 years. Sold by D. A. Munn, Wolfville.

A special meeting of the Kings County Temperance Alliance was held at Berwick on Tuesday. The executive met at 11 o'clock and at 12 the general meeting took place. There was a large attendance considering the busy season of the year, the hall being well filled. A number of new members were added to the list and several matters of routine were carried out. Dr. Everett W. Sawyer, of Summerside, B. C., a former president of the Alliance, was present and gave a very interesting address, which was highly appreciated. Addresses were also given by President Newcombe, Mr. A. deW. Foster, M. P., Messrs. C. A. Campbell, N. W. Barton, Rev. W. J. Rutledge and others.

Mrs. R. deW. Archibald, who has been for some years a resident of Wolfville, and who is at present undergoing a course of treatment in the New England Sanatorium, Melrose, Mass., is greatly improved in health.

Acadia Notes.

The first inter-class debate of the year was held in Assembly Hall last Saturday evening, the subject being 'Resolved, that a single tax on land would be better than the present system of taxation.' The affirmative was supported by Messrs. Hovey, Bruce and McKay, of the Junior class, and the negative by Messrs. Halsey, R. C. Eaton and Bleakney, of the Senior class. The debate was very close and the judges, Rev. E. D. Weber, Dr. Spilde and Prof. Perry, gave it to the Juniors. Next Saturday night there will be a debate between the Sophomores and Freshmen.

The editorship of the Atherton paper will hereafter be competitive. Any member of the student body may compete by writing articles for the paper. The articles are divided into different departments, and the one judged the best in each department will be put in the paper and its writer given two points. The writer of the second best will receive one point. The person making the highest number of points for the year in each department will be made editor of that department for the following year. The editor in chief will be appointed from the successful candidates by the outgoing editorial staff. This scheme will no doubt greatly increase the literary value of the paper.

Letters to the Editor.

To the Editors of THE ACADIAN:
DEAR SIR,—Would you not urge upon the civic authorities the need of straightening that part of Main street that runs through or past 'Mud Bridge,' so-called. We freely admit that the street committee, of which we believe, Councillor Hales is the hard-worked and wise chairman, have been very busy during the summer, but here is an improvement that is widely demanded and is urgently solicited by the people who traverse Main street. At present the road is dangerous for carriage driving as well as automobilizing.

We understand that the straightening of this short piece of road, along the lines long since planned and agreed upon, would be neither expensive or very difficult, and it is about the one particular thing that is now being asked of the road committee. The town is under special and very great obligation to Councillor Hales and his committee, and while we do not feel like criticizing them, yet we feel that this piece of work should be completed this fall.

Yours truly,
VOYAGER.

For Constipation.

A MEDICINE THAT DOES NOT COST ANYTHING UNLESS IT CURES.

The active medicinal ingredient of Rexall Orderlies which, is odorless, tasteless and colorless, is a comparatively new discovery. Combined with other extremely valuable ingredients it forms a perfect bowel regulator, intestinal invigorator and strengthener. Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy and are notable for their agreeableness to the palate and gentleness of action. They do not cause griping or any disagreeable effect or inconvenience.

Unlike other preparations for a like purpose, they do not create a habit, but instead they act to overcome the cause of habit acquired through the use of ordinary laxative cathartics and harsh physic and permanently remove the cause of constipation or irregular bowel action.

We will refund your money without argument if they do not do as we say they will. Two sizes, 25c. and 50c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, A. V. Rand.

The Boy Scouts.

The regular weekly meeting will be held at the Club Room at 7 p.m. Friday. It is hoped that every scout will be present.

The entertainment will be held at the Opera House, Wolfville, on Friday, Nov. 22nd, commencing at 7:30 p.m. Admission will be by program and the sale will commence this week. The admission is only 25 cents and as this is the sole means that the boys have of raising funds it is hoped that a generous response will be made.

In order to keep the movement active, to make it interesting for the boys and thus enrol desirable members, it is necessary that there should be a good camp every summer and prizes offered for competition throughout the year. If those who feel interested in the movement will purchase as many tickets as possible they will provide funds that are absolutely necessary for the work now favorably started is to continue.

Monday Night's Play.

'The Great Divide,' William Vaughn Moody's great story of a man's regeneration, which was given at the Opera House on Monday evening by the Academy of Music players, was a splendid production and won the admiration of the large audience which came from different parts of the county. A treat was expected and realized. Every member of the company scored a personal success. The plot of the play holds the audience by its intense and sustained interest and satisfactorily solves the problem it represents. Sidney Tyler, under whose personal direction the play is staged, as Stephen Ghent brings to the role all the attributes of the character as written by Moody, investing it with the rugged yet appealing personality and presenting it with the finesse of acting which makes the work of an accomplished actor such a constant pleasure.

Doris Woodbridge as Ruth Jordan gave a careful and artistic portrayal of the character and charmed the audience by her manner and work. These were the two leading characters of the play. The other parts while of minor importance were exceedingly well taken. Taken all through the play was most attractive and the return of the Academy players will be awaited with pleasant anticipation.

Patrons are respectfully requested to place their orders early so there may be no distressing disappointments when the busy season begins.
