LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

A very interesting concert was given by the Baptist Mission band and sponsored by Miss Vera Sias in the auditorium of the Baptist church on Thursday evening. The entertainment consisted principally of readings, dialogues and musical numbers, and was much enjoyed by all present.

A pretty little romance was consummated on Tuesday of last week when Miss Leah West-Croft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Franklin Croft of Centreville, was united in marriage to J. Roy Huggard of St. John. The bride and groom have the best wishes of a host of friends for a long and happy married life. They will reside in St. John.

David Reid, who spent the winter with his niece, Mrs. Phinney at Lynn, Mass., returned home last week and is stopping with Hamilton, Reid.

Dr. and Mrs. B. H. Field are being congratulated on the arrival of a new son—Donald White Field.

Mrs. Irvine of Mars Hill visited Mr. and Mrs. John McLean on Saturday.

Miss Pearl Irvine was the guest of the Misses Burt over the week-end.

Scott MacAuley spent part of last week in Fredericton.

The auction sale here at Scholey's on Saturday afternoon was attended by a large and enthusiastic crowd of bargain seekers, and all the different articles for sale were grabbed up forthwith.

A good attendance of jolly people were present in the Opera House on Friday evening to attend the dance given by the Centreville orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. O'Hara and F. A. Gibson left on Monday for Vancouver where they will make their home in future. Mr. and Mrs. O'Hara will join their children who preceded them to that city, while Mr. Gibson will resume his position which he occupied for a number of years prior to his coming east last autumn.

Mrs. Ward of Sausalito, Calif., has returned home after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thompson of this place.

William Kennedy of Woodstock was here on Tuesday working insurance.

A pleasant social evening was enjoyed last Thursday by a number of ladies who met at the home of Mrs. Jack Lee, the guest of honor being Mrs. James O'Hara, who was soon to leave for the west. During the course of the evening refreshments were served. Following this pleasing interlude, Mrs. O'Hara was presented with a handsome brooch set with onyx and pearls. In the address accompanying the presentation, great regret was expressed at her proposed departure and best wishes extended for her happiness in her new home. Mrs. O'Hara, to whom the whole occasion was a complete surprise, replied with appreciative words of thanks, and regret at leaving her friends here in Centreville with whom she has been associated so many years.

Major J. J. Bull of Woodstock of the Farm Settlement board was in town last week appraising farm properties in this vicinity.

W. H. Hoyt of Woodstock, in charge of the Soldiers Reestablishment Bureau was here on Thursday.

C. M. Aughterton and A. L. Burpee of Woodstock spent Wednesday in town.

R. L. Simms, barrister, of Woodstock, was here Thursday on business. H. B. Hagerman is erecting a new shop on his lot on Main street.

Mrs. Glinson spent part of last week with her daughter, Mrs. H. B. Hagerman.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Briggs, who have both been ill for a fortnight are convalescing.

On April 17 Rev. H. B. Bell will preach as follows: Centreville 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m.; Carleton 2 p.m. Male quartette will sing at evening service. You are cordially invited to attend. Come and hear!
