trell, Capt. A. C. R. informs us that the Grand Trunk Railway will not lower its rates, below $15.00, making the through trip to Ottawa and return $29.50, so that the attempt to arrange a cheap excursion must for this session be considered abandoned.THE DEATH OF Rev. W. A. Coleman took place last evening after an illness of only six days, from inflammation of the lungs. The reverend gentleman was not only held in high esteem as a minister of the Gospel, but was greatly respected in this community as an upright citizen, and just in all his ways.ROBERT ANDREWS, the defaulting agent of a life insurance company, who left Halifax two weeks since, was arrested at Yarmouth on Friday on board the schooner "Lightfoot," by Detective Hunt. Andrews was bound for the United States. He is arrested on charge of perjury and embezzlement.THE MONTREAL Gazette is the leading Conservative paper of Canada, both in circulation and influence.
The ability it displays, its sound and moderate views on all questions make it respected by even its enemies, and its commercial and literary departments sustain its popularity with the general public. Weekly subscription is $1. (see adv.) Subscriptions may be sent to this office.The ST. JOHN COUNTRY MARKET.— On Tuesday, potatoes from 50 to 70 cents per bushel. Butter was scarce, firkin butter bringing from 22 to 24 cents; and roll butter from 26 to 28 cents. Eggs 20 to 22 cents.
There was a fair supply of poultry, geese bringing 40 and 50 cents; turkeys 12 and 16 cents; and chickens from 30 to 50 cents. For partridges, of which there were considerable, from 30 to 35 cents a brace was asked.FROM MONCTON.—A gas and water Company is the newest project. A Driving Park is also mooted. The numerous fires belonging to this damp have no place but the muddy nasty front street in which to exist.
The people. The approach of the Civil Election is causing an increase in the Temperance organizations.
The success of the Temperance body last year in getting a Council of Total Abstinence has caused a re-action, and there are but few aspirants for Civic honors.

DEAR POST.—It would occur too much of your space to reply fully to all of the charges and base insinuations of "X" and "Y." The statements in my former letter remain unchallenged, and with some understanding of the school records, and of the dispute their integrity can be maintained by reference to the school records, or those of the education office. I will be very sorry if a few inaccuracies in the previous articles, hoping that "X," alias "H," alias "Fair Play," may be able to define them, and that hereafter your readers may be spared the inflation of his ill-mannered and disgusting literature.It is not true that No. 14 has "wrongfully used the money," or that the first "teacher" was discharged on account of too high salary. Had "X," said high teacher, he would have been nearer the mark, and had the said teacher received all the money in the parish, "X" would be the last man to question its use. The money was used in payment of the school debt and to good and respectable teachers, who never insulted either their employers or the youths under their charge, and the trustees only regret that such a class of teachers did not exist.One thing has been very evident to all that "X," alias "Fair Play," alias "H," alias "X," repeatedly insinuates that No.
14 and "X" have been the school for the purpose of "winning." His opinion does not make it so, and his comparison the less odious.
