CHURCHMEN TALK SOCIALISM

England's Wonderful Economic Movement Discussed by Pan-Anglican Congress

POWERLESS TO PREVENT IT

Bishop of Birmingham Blames the Church for so Long Failing to Assist the Oppressed

London, June 22.—Highly significant of present-day sociological thought was today's principal session of the Pan-Anglican Congress here, when the largest gathering yet assembled to hear the message of the Church to Socialism. One hundred and fifty archbishops and bishops and a multitude of minor clergy and an assemblage of women and young men outnumbering any hitherto gathered crowded Albert Hall. The Bishop of Birmingham, who was scheduled to preside, was absent owing to illness. He sent a paper, which was read by his substitute, the keynote of which was the injustice of the existing division of the profits on industry. After contrasting the grinding poverty of the workers with the extravagant luxury of the idle rich, he demanded a tremendous act of penitence for having failed so long and so greatly to champion the cause of the oppressed and weak, penitence to be followed by reparation in the well-merited judgment of God and took all weapons of social influence out of our hands.

There followed a series of eloquent addresses, the first of which was from Mr. McBee, of New York. All the speakers except one displayed a Socialistic tendency, basing their argument on teaching of the religion of Christianity and the brotherhood of humanity. The abolition of wage earning and the public maintenance of childbearing mothers were among the reforms predicted or advocated.

Rev. J. G. Simpson, principal of the Clergy School at Leeds, assured the vast audience that all over the north of England they were face to face with a rising tide of Socialism, which they were powerless to stem, even if they wished to do so. Countless workers in the forges, furnaces and mills of the North had adopted the Socialistic idea and held it like a religion and loved it like a bride. He demanded that the Church give a free field to Socialism. He appealed to it to try to understand it and not to hasten to discount it.

More significant than the speeches themselves was the keen interest shown in the Socialistic pleas and the earnest enthusiasm with which such notions as those advanced by John Williams and Mary at home and John Williams in Seattle. He also leaves five brothers John, William, James and Michael of Barnaby River, and Jerry, of Chelmsford; and four sisters, Mrs. James Harrigan, Chelmsford, Mrs. Daniel Sullivan, Mrs. John Sullivan, and Mrs. James Regan, Barnaby River. Funeral was held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at the R. C. church at Chelmsford. Rev. E. S. Murdoch celebrated the mass and officiated at the grave.

N. B. TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Over 500 Teachers Enrol at Annual Meeting in Fredericton Last Week.

C. P. R. ROASTED

Teachers' Pensions Endorsed by Surveyor-General and by the Teachers.

The N. B. Teachers Institute was in session in Fredericton from June 25th to 27th. Over 500 teachers enrolled, it being the most largely attended provincial institute ever held.

The greater part of Thursday morning's session was taken up with an excellent address by Dr. J. R. Inch. R. Ernest Estabrooks of Woodstock, one of the leading members of the N. B. Teachers' Union, moved a resolution expressing the dissatisfaction and disapproval which the teachers assembled felt towards the C. P. R. for the accommodation which they had provided for the lady teachers who attended the institute. Mr. Estabrooks, Professor Bridges of St. John, who seconded the motion, and several others "roasted" the C. P. R. for its treatment of the teachers. Dr. Inch tried to bring the I. C. R. into the resolution, but Principal McIntosh, of Blackville, and several others defended the latter and it was not embraced in the resolution. The motion carried unanimously, and before the session's close bore fruit, as the C. P. R. management arranged for better accommodation for the teachers on their return.

At the public meeting Thursday evening addresses were delivered by Mayor Chesnut, Hon. W. C. H. Grimmer, Hon. H. F. MacLeod and Prof. Locke.

Mr. Grimmer strongly advocated manual training and domestic science in schools. He also expressed himself as in favor of longer summer holidays for teachers and the introduction of a liberal system of old-age pensions for teachers.

Hon. Mr. MacLeod spoke in favor of increased salaries for teachers. Friday afternoon, Rev. Dr. Kierstead of Woodstock, spoke on Moral Training in Our Public Schools, advocating a non-sectarian system of religious and moral instruction.

TEACHERS' UNION.

On the evening of the 26th an executive meeting of the N. B. Teachers' Association was held. Pres. W. M. MacLean presiding. H. H. Stuart resigned the office of Secretary treasurer which he had held for five years, and was succeeded by R. Ernest Estabrooks of Woodstock. It was decided that the executive with power to add to their numbers, should be a committee to revise the constitution during next term.

At Saturday morning's session of the Teachers' Institute, Mr. W. J. S. Myles, principal of the St. John High School, moved a resolution in favor of granting pensions to teachers. He spoke eloquently in support of the resolution and discussed the different schemes for providing pensions and annuities in other countries. He said that in Germany and France the state provided the pension, and that was the plan he favored for New Brunswick. If this plan was put in operation now the cost at the end of ten years would not exceed $12,000 annually. Thirty years service on the part of the teacher might reasonably be demanded by the state and public. An old age limit might be established allowing lady teachers to retire at fifty-five and male teachers at sixty. He told of a delegation of which he was a member, waiting up on the old government prior to the election. They presented the scheme fully to the executive and three weeks later received a communication from the Attorney General promising that asked for legislation would be introduced at the next session. At the change of government, the matter was laid before Premier Hazen, and he expressed himself as being in hearty sympathy with it. A promise had been given that the matter would be dealt with at the next session of the legislature.

The resolution recommended that male teachers of sixty years of age and female teachers of 55, after thirty years service, be allowed to retire on a pension. Also that a pension be allowed teachers of twenty years service who have become incapacitated from illness. It was strongly recommended that the government at the next session pass an act providing a pension for teachers.

My Myles in reply to a question by Miss Ella Thorne, a veteran teacher, said that to avoid discussion, the amount of the pension was not stated in the resolution. It had been suggested, however, that lady teachers should have $250 and male teachers $400 per year.

The resolution passed unanimously. The following were elected on the Executive for the coming two years: Dr. H. S. Bridges, St. John.

A. B. Maggs, Moncton.
Principal Foster, Fredericton.
H. H. Hagerman, Fredericton.
C. D. Richards, Woodstock.

Miss Davis, Moncton.
John B. Delong, Miltown.
H. G. Perry, Hampton.

Miss Thorne, Fredericton.
Miss Phoebe Robertson, Hamilton.
Inspector Steeves read a well considered paper on "A Course of Instruction for Rural Schools."

Aged And Blind Indian Receives Mysterious Warning That Saved His Life

JUST AVOIDED BOLT

Lightning Tore Hole In Floor Beneath where He Had Been Sitting

A wonderful occurrence, which our readers may interpret as they please, is reported from Eel Ground. Lemuel Renous, an aged and partially blind Indian of that reserve returned to his home from Newcastle shortly after eight o'clock Monday night. While eating his supper, he was suddenly seized with a mysterious and unaccountable fear that impelled him to leave the house and seek shelter elsewhere. The thunder storm had not yet commenced. Just as he left the house, lightning struck it shivering the chimney. This confirmed him in his decision not to return that night. Early Tuesday morning he reentered his house, and found the chimney and stovepipe demolished, the stove thrown over on its side, and a good sized hole through the floor right under where he had sat immediately before rising to leave the house the night before.

THE WHITE MAN'S BURDEN.

Brown Men of Sumatra Struggle to Civilize

THE HAGUE Thursday.—A rebellion broke out at Padang on the west coast of Sumatra, which has reached alarming proportions. According to telegrams from Batavia, Java, almost the whole native population is reported to have risen under the leadership of fanatical priests.

There are thirty European settlements, which are spread over a wide area, and only 2000 Dutch soldiers available to defend them. Three battles have been fought resulting in considerable loss on both sides.

Preparations are being made to embark all the Dutch women and children from the west coast of Sumatra in place of soldiers. The dissatisfaction arose over the tax regulations.

THE SHAH ROUTS PARLIAMENT

Persian Ruler Hands Over His Capital to the Russian Soldiers.

LONDON, Saturday.—The Times Tehran correspondent says that the Shah's proclamation declares Persia to have been under martial law from June 22nd, and that it gives General Liakhoff commander of the Cossacks, a free hand to deal severely with the people. The assembling of the people and the carrying of arms is prohibited on pain of death. Several members of the assembly are in chains in the royal camp. The others are scattered and their whereabouts are unknown. The number of prisoners in the camp is increasing hourly. Those detained are being subjected to the worst of ordeals. Messages from the provinces are being censored, thus severing the provinces from communication with the capital. It is difficult to pass judgment as yet, the Times correspondent adds, but undoubtedly the popular feeling that what is regarded here as the inactivity of Great Britain and the activity of Russia probably will restore the Shah's autocracy. The correspondent also says that it is reported from Tabriz that the governor of that city has taken refuge in the Russian consulate there.

Both sides were working to make the law enlarge homesteading and preemption rights of the west thoroughly workable. The Bill is a very large one and will be taken up again Monday.

Take little cups heads or vases or pictures taken with a No. 2 Brownie camera; mix plaster paris with cold water to form a paste; next take small oval platter, wet the platter with cold water and pour out, then put the picture face down on wet platter in the centre, then put the plaster paris in very smooth; have two little brass rings with a loop of tape through each lay the ends into paste and cover, leaving a little loop of tape and the rings free to hang the plaque on the wall. It will harden in a very short time and slips out of platter easy. It should be very smooth. If done right you have a very pretty picture.
