At the regular meeting of Huron Enfranchisement, No. 28, last Friday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

P. P. Patriarch, Jas. Yates.
S. W. " W. H. Murney.
H. P. " H. W. Ball.
J. W. " A. Kirkbride.
Scribe " J. B. Moore.
F. Scribe " Geo. Stevens.
Treasurer " N. Campbell.

Representative to Grand Encampment, Patrick N. Campbell.

Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, of Toronto, preached in Knox church on Sunday last, morning and evening. His sermons were practical and pointed, admirably conceived, and delivered with an earnestness that sent them home to the minds and hearts of his hearers. His reading of the Scriptures, too, was very expressive. He also paid a visit to the Sunday school and gave an address. Mr. Macdonnell does not appear to be in robust health just now. He greatly admires the situation and scenery of Goderich. He was the guest of Rev. Dr. Ure.

THE EX-CANADIAN PREMIER ON THE ALLAN LINE.—In presenting an address to Captain Smith, of the Circassian, the Hon. Alex. Mackenzie, in the course of his remarks, said that he had been speaking the views of at least all Canadians when I say that we are proud of the Allan line of Canadian steamships, and that no money was ever better spent than the comparatively small mail subsidy which the Government had granted to aid in securing a first-class steam communication with England. [The Liverpool Journal of Commerce.]

There was a downward tendency in eggs on Saturday morning last. B. C. Strachan, the purveyor-general to the Beatty boats at this port, was the victim of the "drop," owing to a cheese box containing 25 dozen of hen-fruits, losing its bottom and dropping the eggs. The box was being passed up on the boat when the smash occurred, and great was the amount thereof. After the tumbled few of the eggs were fit for practical purposes, and a dorkie was detailed to clear the debris off the dock. The break of the 25 dozen yolk-holders was a bad one, and all the king's horses and all the king's men could not put humpty dumpty together again.

BICYCLISTS FROM CINCINNATI.—Frank L. Sargent and John W. Innes, of Cincinnati, rode into town on Friday last on their trusty bicycles. They travelled by rail to Detroit, and from that point struck out by wheel on the proposed Canadian route of the Chicago bicyclists.

They report the course a good one, and were so enraptured with Goderich, that they remained over a day or two longer than they had at first planned. Mr. Innes said he had written several letters to friends across the line describing Goderich and its splendid roads in the most glowing terms. Our boys took an occasional spin with their Cincinnati brethren of the bicycle, and made the strangers feel that they were among friends.

LAWYER SOCIAL.—The lawn social held at the residence of Mrs. R. B. Smith on Thursday evening of last week was well attended, and gave general satisfaction throughout. During the evening a choice vocal and instrumental program was gone through, in which a number of our most talented local musicians took part. Ice cream, hot coffee, &c., were freely indulged in during the evening. The proceeds of the social amounted to $29, and goes to assist in procuring a gasometer for the church.

SOCIAL AND LECTURE.—The grand anniversary social under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary Society of North Street Methodist church was on Monday evening last. After music had been partaken of, a very interesting lecture was delivered by Rev. Mr. Howard. A short address given on the occasion by Rev. also field.

GODERICH.—The Goderich Signal last week gave a very fine description of its town and the many advantages it possesses as a summer resort. Numerous enquiries as to the principal hotels and a practical glimpse of "the square" are given, and unlike the pictures in the big dailies they are correct. The article is a good one, and we believe, perfectly correct. [Editor Reflector.]

A motion was applied for to his honor Judge Toms, on Tuesday last, to dismiss the action in each of the following cases: Cameron & Ellis; Cameron v. Gibson; Cameron & Chambers; Cameron v. Sturt. The above were actions instituted by M. C. Cameron against delinquent returning officers at the general election of 1882. Objections were taken to the granting of the motion in every instance. Judgment reserved.

Rev. J. H. Howard, who has been filling the pulpit of the Methodist Church of Canada here during Rev. J. Wakefield's rest from preaching, left on Thursday for Toronto, to prepare himself for his duties in the North-west. Mr. Howard is a young man of much ability, and will likely reach a high place in the Methodist ministry. He made many friends during his short stay in Goderich.

Mr. and Mrs. Rice, of Toronto, were the guests of Alec Saunders last week, being on their wedding tour. The bride is Miss Reid, of Hamilton, a cousin of Mr. Saunders. The Mail says.—On Monday evening the employees in Eby, Blain & Co.'s establishment presented the cashier, Mr. Rice, with a handsome set of furniture as a mark of the good feeling existing between them on the occasion of his approaching marriage.

THE GRIP-SACK.—Grip's summer book of "lattes" is on its way to the book-stores. Its reading matter, judging from the advanced sheets, will be better than usual this year owing to the fact that Switz sits in the editorial chair. The pen of Switz and the pencils of J. W. Bengough, Wm. Bengough and J. W. Kelly have combined to make aliterary and artistic reprint fitted to charm away the mosquitoes in the hot season. The book will be out in July.

THE OLDEST CANARY.—Thomas Hood, street inspector of this town, writes the following characteristic sketch of a canary which died on Wednesday at the great age of 17 years.—"Hughie, my pet canary, who was perhaps the oldest bird in town, died this morning at 6.30. He burst from his shell in 1866, and before he learnt a note the dim of battle was sounding—the battle of the Bayfield road. Since then he has never been one hour from his cage, and never for 17 years has he taken one peck from home. Always liberal in song, but conservative in habits, he paid for every seed he cracked, and left no debt behind him. Where is the man or bird who will not mourn for Hughie?—THOS. HOOD.

DOMINION DAY IN GODERICH.—The celebration of the 16th anniversary of the confederation of the British North American Provinces will be celebrated in Goderich on Monday, July 2d, with due loyalty. The programme for the day will consist of freemen's procession, athletic games, bicycle races, lake excursions, a lacrosse match between Goderich and Clinton, the summer exhibition of the Horticultural society, a grand concert in the evening, and the finest fireworks display ever exhibited in Huron. Single fares to Goderich and return from all points, and special train arrangements have been made to give visitors an opportunity to see the entire day's doings. For particulars see programmes.

The Wheelman's Paradise.
From the Chicago Herald.
A correspondent of the "Herald" writes the following regarding the contemplated Canadian tour of the bicyclists of this country, and describes a Canuck city in glowing terms. He says: "Goderich, Ont., on the route of the Canadian tourists in July, is a wheelman's paradise, and is fully described by 'Huronian' as the prettiest town in Canada. Not only are all the streets gravelled, but also the approaches from the surrounding country. The run from London, via Lucan, Exeter and Bayfield, sixty-five miles, is the finest day's ride to be had in Canada; 'sand-papered' gravel, boulevard-like road at the way, and no hills worth mentioning en route. On arrival at Goderich the visitor finds himself on the 'Square,' which will, however, be more apt to give him the impression of a circle octagon in shape, and having the eight principal streets radiating from it. In the center, surrounded by a shady park, stands the court house. The distance around the circle is about one-third of a mile, broad and smooth, making a fine course. Many elegant rupa and drives stretch out from the town, notably to Point Farm summer resort, six miles north, where there is an elevation 250 feet above the lake, from which a view, unsurpassed in Canada, is obtained. The numerous summer resorts surrounding the town unsurpassed roads lead, and, in point of scenery, good roads and excellent accommodations, Goderich well deserve its reputation.

"Everybody rides a fine machine in Canada, because they cost much less than on this side. What the Americans pay $175 for, here buys a full-necked imported, or American machine, the Canadians pay but $110. For this reason there are no American machines in Canada, and the advent of the Americans into that country on the bicycle tour from Detroit to Niagara Falls is looked forward to with much interest in the prospect of a comparison of machines. This trip is looked forward to with anticipation on the part of wheelmen, striding American machines, they claiming the superior workmanship and fitting of the home machine will outlast the English bicycles, which have hitherto been most popular in this country."

Bicycle Whippers.
Now we're an organized institution—The club.
The boys put me in as president—The Doctor.
By my beard, I'm Vice-President—Glas.
Doesn't my title seem a little familiar?—Capt. Cox.
I'm a lightweight, but rapid—Lat Lieut. Johnny Mac.
My banking experience will make me an AI treasurer—Harry Vidal.
We all can't be officers—S. McV. Lloyd.
You bet I'll toot my little horn—Bugler Lloyd.
Oughtn't we to have a surgeon?—The Beginners.
I'll get Rhynas to put in sticking plaster at cost—2nd Lieut. Harry Mac.
Have you seen me on my wheel?—M. Greme Cameron.
It's a daisy, an "improved" machine, and I ride it too—"Dick."
I took my second trip around the Square on Wednesday—Fred Bond.
I take an occasional spin around the square—Harry K.
The unwashed call us the "Skids"—G. B. C.
I photographed the Cincinnati cyclists—Sallows.
ECHOES FROM CLINTON.
I'm an old man of sixty-two, but I mastered the bicycle—Editor Holmes.
There's no more harm in riding a bicycle to preaching than in harnessing and driving a quadruped—Bob.
I never thought I could beat McCutlough on the wheel—Jackson.
I'm particularly fond of the Goderich roads myself—Ransford.
Charles Warton, an acrobat, met death at Milwaukee while practicing a doubtful somersault.
