Do I Remember?

Ah, yes friend, I remember well
The St. John's nights of long ago:
The bon-fires blazing on the hills,
The shouts that reached the vale below:
Fond memories flit to and fro
As watchers on the distant heights Passed back and forth the ruddy glow,
On far away midsummer nights, Ah, No! I can not yet forget How eagerly we strove to raise The fire upon the spot that would Assure the loftiest, brightest blaze;
And how our hearts danced, when the praise
Of elders blessed our boyish pains, Ah, yes, friend, those were happy days Whose memory still undimmed remains.
And one bright night, than all the rest,
The brightest that I ever knew,
When brands in hand we left the hill
And sought the valley, two and two;
I can't forget the eyes of blue,
The laughter nor the smiling face,
That thrilled my soul that summer night,
With all their beauty, mirth and grace.

Behold! upon the loftiest hill
I see a flick'ring flame appear,
And bourne upon the breeze is heard
The echo of a distant cheer;
And now a brilliant flame more near Illumes the landscape with its glow,
And in its radiant light I see Pale visions of the Long Ago.

Yes, I can see them all again, Brimful of joy, of youth, of cheer,
And looking back across the years
I weave a brand in circles clear;
I call aloud that they may hear—Tho' perhaps in alien climes they roam—
The boys and girls, now aged and worn,
Who hand in hand that night went home.

Burn bright, ye blazing bon-fires burn,
Close down upon the hills afar,
As if in mimicry alight, Gleams many a fair dream-haunted star;
My Fancy's fires re-kindled are,
I live one hour of pure delight,
I live with boyhood's friends again,
On this serene midsummer's night.

Stop That Cough

A good many people have thought that a cough did not amount to much —most excellent people whose friends were sorry to lose them. Now don't make this mistake. A cough is the first step toward serious and other fatal sickness. Stop it right there.
Our "Phorator Cough Mixture" in 25 cent bottles, postage 5 cents extra, has proved a marvellous cough stopper.

Cattle Destroyed

Mr. Wm. Healey of Blackhead, travelled into the city, yesterday morning over the Blackhead Road and reports that at Straffordshire, just outside of Leamey's, he discovered the carcass of a fine heifer which had been killed by dogs which roam the country side out there in packs. The brutes are in the woods during the day lying gorged with the meat taken from the carcass.
He thinks by the look of the animal that it was killed either Friday or Saturday last. There are now out in that section let loose to graze, about 30 head of cattle owned by the people of Killbride and the city suburb and residents report that they hear these vicious dogs worrying them nightly, so that Mr. Healey thinks it likely that other cattle might have been killed.
He says it is dangerous for an unarmed man to travel the road in the evening. The owners of the cattle now out there should get together, arm themselves and exterminate these brutes.

SALVAGE FISHERY.—Arrivals by yesterday's express from the Northward say that at Salvage since Friday last there has been good fishing with hook and line on caplin bait which recently struck in there. From 3 to 4 qts. per boat have been taken, but on the north side of the bay the fishery is not good.

Busy at Campellton.

Mr. Chown who travels for the Nfd.
Clothing Company, arrived here by the train Saturday. He says that Campbellton at present is as busy a place as any in the Island. Nearly 200 men are at work on the new pulp mills of the Horwood Lumber Coy. The residence of the manager has been completed, the work occupying only about 5 weeks, as a big staff of men were engaged at it. It is a beautiful cottage house, large and commodious and well ventilated of 3 stories with concrete basement and much resembles Mr. Horwood's handsome residence on Hamilton Street. He will not occupy it until December next. It is beautifully painted and decorated inside and out.
The foundations of the principal buildings of the plant are being rushed ed to completion, the pier is well under way and half of the track for trains and trolleys has been laid while a crowd of men are also at work building the dam. The men are receiving good wages and though Mr.
Horwood is keeping them up to their work he is popular with all being a man of kindness and consideration.

Cape Report.

SPECIAL TO EVENING TELEGRAM.
CAPE RACE, To-Day.
Wind west, fresh, weather dull. The steamers Ramore Head and Horsley passed west, Victorian and Rappahannock east yesterday. Two icebergs are in sight, one south west, the other east north east about ten miles.
The steamer Horsley reports a large iceberg in lat. 48.15, longitude 50. S.
S. Montmagy arrived here this morning being held up at Trepassy 2 days with fog. Bar. 29.40; ther. 55.

A Fine Vessel.

The Horwood Lumber Coy's New purchase, the schr. 'Arthur H. Wright' arrived here from Campbellton a few days ago with 145,000 feet of lumber from the mills. She is a fine 3 topmast schooner, of 100 tons, is commanded by Captain Wills of Change Islands, and he says she is a splendid sailer and a fine rough weather vessel.
The company are to be congratulated on owning such a fine ship.

Pearl Evelyn Arrives in Port.

The schr. Pearl Evelyn, Capt. Mc-Kay, arrived here from Bay Bulls Saturday evening. The ship with 2000 qts. Labrador fish on board went to Gibraltar for orders and after 4 days stay there, as the markets in Europe for such a class of goods were weak she was ordered back to Newfoundland.
She left Gibraltar on May 15th, had a fine run to the Grand Banks and then had boisterous weather with gales from N. and N.E. She landed her cargo at Bay Bulls where Mr. Jeremiah Williams is buying it and later it will be sent to some other country. The vessel has been chartered to go to the West Coast to load fish.

Taft Has Been Nominated.

SPECIAL TO EVENING TELEGRAM.
CHICAGO, June 23.
With nearly 350 Roosevelt delegates declining to vote, and hastening away at adjournment time to tender Roosevelt a nomination at Newport on July 15th, the Republican National Convention, at the end of a long session on Saturday night, re-nominated William Howard Taft for President, and James S. Sherman for Vice-President. Taft received 561 of the 1,078 votes in the Convention, or 21 more than a majority. The decision of the Roosevelt people, under the direction of their leader, to refrain from voting, left no other candidate near the President.
The announcement of the Taft victory was greeted with cheering by his adherents. When it became certain that Taft would be nominated without difficulty, the leaders in control of the Convention decided to give him as a running mate his companion on the ticket of 1908. All others dropped from the race, and Sherman was the only candidate regularly placed before the Convention. A motion from New Hampshire to make the nomination by acclamation was declared out of order, and there were many scattering votes on the roll call that ensued. The Convention, amid confusion, adjourned, sine die. The detailed vote was as follows:—

For President.
Taft	561
Roosevelt	107
La Follette	41
Cummings	17
Hughes	2
Not Voting	344
Absent	6
1078

At times during the balloting the Convention was in great confusion.

For Vice-President.
Sherman	597
Borah	21
Merrill	20
Hadley	14
Beveridge	2
Gillette	1

SPECIAL EVENING TELEGRAM.
CHICAGO, This Morning.
Roosevelt was nominated for President on an independent ticket, Saturday night, in the closing hours of the Republican National Convention. The followers of Roosevelt met in Orchestral Hall, less than a mile from the Coliseum, and pledged their support to the former president. In accepting the nomination, Roosevelt appealed to the Boy Hurt.

Yesterday afternoon it was reported at the police station that one boy had seriously injured another on Queen's Road, and Officer Humber was immediately despatched there. It appears that a younger lad was struck by his opponent a stunning blow in the face and as a result was unconscious. Dr.
Taft was called and brought the younger to himself again.
