Brawling Line Still Closer and Stronger.

GENERAL'S REASON FOR ABANDONMENT OF NORTH WEST FRANCE.

London, August 31.—The French army and our British troops are now holding good positions, in a much stronger and closer line, and stemming the tide of the German hordes, rolling up to Paris," says the Chronicle's Amiens correspondent.

"General Paul Pau, the hero of this war, after his swift return from the Eastern front, where he repaired the deadly check at Muelhausen, has dealt a smashing blow at the German army corps, which was striking to the heart of France. Paris is still safe for the time being with the great army of the allied forces drawn across the country as a barrier which surely will not be broken by the enemy."

"I have been all through this war zone during the past fortnight, and nothing I have seen or heard from either the British or the French leads me to believe that our army has been smashed, or that the allies are demoralized."

"Retreats, which seem fatal when seen close at hand, are not altogether disastrous in their results when viewed from the proper perspective. As a matter of fact the German audacity of attack is leading them into no retreat if their lines are cut."

"When the Germans swept round Lille they found to their amazement that this town, surrounded by forts, had been abandoned. This easy access to a town, which could have been defended to the last gasp, opened the way to the west of France. The fact was that the controlling brain of General Joffre, the French Commander in chief and his headquarters staff had decided that the northwest corner of France was untenable, and that the main army of defence should be drawn into closer and stronger positions."

It was then that the great panic among the populace of the affected district began. The flight of thousands of families was an enormous tragedy. They still are being hunted from place to place, finding no shelter and no permanent safety. The railway trains are choked with them. Long fugitive trains of footless persons spend weary days and nights on sidings, seeking routes of escape. To all these people it seems as though 1870 has come again.

"When the troops marched away from Boulogne, leaving it silent and unguarded, the inhabitants were utterly dismayed. Rumors were current that the enemy was very close. Can one wonder that the populace rushed out, panic stricken, to join the hordes of refugees travelling, they know not where?"

Investment of Paris

WOULD BE "IMMENSE BLUFF."

Paris, Aug. 31.—The decision of the military authorities to clear the zone of forts around Paris does not affect the zone immediately surrounding the old fortifications of the city. It only applies to detached forts, such as those at Montvalerien, Issy and others.

Under this decision all the buildings and small structures, of no great value, surrounding the forts, will be pulled down. Steps have been taken to provide shelter for all homeless persons.

Lieut.-Colonel Leonce Rousset, the military critic, writing for his paper, the Petit Parisien, reassures those who may have been frightened by the possible investment of Paris. He declares:

"First, that in 1870 the capital was held for nearly five months under conditions much different than those of to-day."

Second, the Germans had a free disposition, at least as far as Nanteuil-Sur-Marne, of the Strassburg-Paris through railroad lines, while at present they have not yet been able to touch the eastern fortified frontier, and have been driven back of Mortagne, north of Valenciennes.

Third, their sole line of communication which passes by Belgium, is at this point so precarious that it can be destroyed in a moment."

The investment of Paris, he declares, if it should occur, would be nothing but an "immense bluff," and would soon be interrupted.

Fads and Fashions.

Full circular skirts are hinted at. The majority of sleeves are long. Zibeline is being used for winter coats.

Some of the new suits have coats with high necks.

The smartest tunics reach almost to the skirt edge.

Straight band shapes are among the new collars.

Wide girdles are frequently seen on afternoon gowns.

Fancy filet meshes are the most fashionable veillings.

Pleated dresses are among the best for young girls.

Black lace over white is smart, even for young girls.

Many of the new waists are made to wear over the skirts.

Plaid silk is made up with plain satin for the new waists.

The brilliant tango shades are not in good taste for fall.

Any amount of velvet will be used the coming winter.

The fashions for 1914 strongly emphasize military lines.

Crystal fringe is a favorite trimming for evening gowns.

Joint and Muscle Pains Banished by Nerviline.

IT CURES RHEUMATISM.

Thousands of people, chock full of the joy of living—happy, glad, bright people, that Nerviline has cured of their pains, all tell the same wonderful story of its power to drive out the aches and tortures of rheumatism and kindred ills.

"My goodness, but Nerviline is a miracle-worker," writes Mrs. Charlotte Chipman, mother of a well-known family residing at Mount Pleasant. "Last month I was crippled up with sciatica and muscular rheumatism as to be almost unable to do a bit of housework. My joints were so stiff and the muscles so frightfully sore that I even cried at times with the pain. For years we have used Nerviline in our family and I just got busy with this wonderful good old liniment. Lots of rubbing with Nerviline soon relieved my misery and I was in a real short time about my work as usual."

"No matter where the ache is, no matter how distressing the pain you can rub it away with Nerviline. For forty years it has been curing lumbago, sciatica, backache, colds, chest trouble and all sorts of winter ills. Keep a large 50c. family size bottle handy and you'll be saved lots of trouble and have smaller doctor bills. Small trial size 25c. at dealers everywhere.

German Troops Destroy Corps That Mutined.

Rome, Aug. 28.—The correspondent of the Messenger, at Trieste, Austria, confirms the rumors of insurrectionary movements in all the provinces of Austria.

Executions almost daily are being held en masse, and all the fortresses are filled with Austrian prisoners.

The correspondent asserts that the Bohemian regiment that refused to fight against Servia was surrounded by six German and Hungarian regiments and completely annihilated.

MINARD'S LINIMENT FOR SALE EVERYWHERE.
