Western Bankers Doing Well.

Dane Retreated

GOING TO LOUISBURG. The Danish steamer Lars Kruse, which got down off Cape Race three days ago when she encountered heavy ice and became jammed, left for Louisburg yesterday. The ship was supposedly bound here short of coal, but being unable to negotiate the ice blockade, her captain decided to alter his course and go to Louisburg for a fuel supply.

"OURS" IN THE WEST END.

Will close down during Holy Week and will have several alterations attended to. On Easter Monday there will be two stagers at Ours, and Mr. Rossley is doing all in his power to get the finest pictures obtainable, and by the packed and crowded houses it is easy to see how well he has succeeded.

Belated Vessels Arrive Here and There.

DOROTHY BAIRD. The schr. Dorothy Baird, Capt. Keeling, 53 days out from Macdo, reached port this morning in ballast to Jas. Baird, Ltd. The vessel was first detained by strong head winds on reaching this coast, then heavy ice was encountered and she was forced to put into Burin, where she was held for ten days. When the ice loosened a bit and drove off from the shore the vessel came along. Shortly before last midnight she had a narrow escape from going ashore at Cape Spear owing to the wind changing and the ice coming in again. The vessel was forced to within a few yards of the shore. It was only through the careful and skilful management of Capt. Keeling that the mishap was avoided.

DUNURE. Bowring's barg. Dunure, Capt. Connelly, also entered port to-day. She was 60 days out from Bahia and ice principally was the cause of the delay. The Dunure was on this coast for several weeks, making little or no progress. Four weeks ago she got jammed in the ice off Placentia Bay, and when she got clear put into Placentia, where she remained several days. On resuming, Capt. Connelly kept dodging the ice and nursed his vessel along until he reached Cape Broyle, where he harbored and awaited a change of wind to drive the ice off. The Dunure came in ballast.
