STRUCK BY THE SWITCH

Home

Robert Roland, a colored porter on the Lehigh express, was badly hurt this morning as the train pulled through the city from the east at 11 o'clock. He was standing on the steps of the car, so much engrossed in thought that he did not notice the switch at Wellington street, which is high and close to the track, until his cogitations were rudely disturbed by the aforesaid switch. He was struck on the shoulder with considerable force. No bones were broken, but he was very badly bruised and shaken up. Dr. Drake attended him, and he proceeded on his way to his home in Easton, Pa. He will be laid up for some weeks. Several accidents have occurred in the same manner as above, so that the danger of standing on the car steps while the train is moving is very great.

MICHAEL WARD FINED $50 and Costs-Four More Charges to Be

Laid. The case against Michael Ward for selling liquor without a license was again continued before Squires Smyth and Lacey at the West End Court this afternoon. A lengthy argument was entered into on behalf of Ward by his counsel, P. McPhillips, but Crown Prosecutor McKillop broke this down, and the magistrate said he had to take the evidence as he found it, and imposed a fine of $50 and costs or three months in jail. Mr. McKillop said he had four other informations against Ward, which would be proceeded with at once.

Mrs. Brooks, of Pottersburg, who was charged with stealing a child's express wagon on July 11 from the premises of Mr. Bourn, of the Hamilton road, just east of the city limits, came up before Squire Lacey this morning, and was committed for triai. She appeared before Judge Wm. ETliot. Mr. R. M. C. Toothe appeared for the woman, and explained to the judge that she had taken the wagon because she had found it in a secluded part of the premises, and thought it had been abandoned. Her little boy had taken the wagon out on the street in the neighborhood, and he thought this was evidence against any inten-tion of theft. Mr. McKillop, who was prosecuting the woman, did not agree to this, but as the woman was married and had a family he would offer no obtence, and the judge complied with the request of her counsel.

A Montreal dispatch says Robert Forsyth, marble dealer and granite paving block contractor, has failed, with liabilities of $100,000. Duprees Freres, retail drygoods merchants, have also gone under, with habilities of $130,000.

The bankers of Montreal held a meeting yesterday in regard to the circulation of American silver in Can-ada. It was decided to refuse it at the banks. This will not only affect the coin, but also the silver certificates. It was shown that the theory that American coin was necessary for trade purposes was not true, as the vaults of the Montreal banks were full of Canadian silver.
