New Arts Building.

Kingston, Aug. 14.—The new arts building on Queen's University has been completed by the contractors and handed over to the college authorities. It is a beautiful structure and finished off in the most approved style.

Tried to Rob Postoffice. Beamsville, Ont., Aug. 14.—A bold attempt was made Tuesday night, between 12 and 1 o'clock, to rob the Beamsville postoffice. After attempting to pry open the back door with some kind of bar, the door leading to a lodge room above was burst open. The noise awakened the assistant postmaster, who stood in the office, and the alarm was given, which frightened the miscreants away before their purpose could be accomplished.

A Complete Cable Station. Ottawa, Aug. 14.—Good progress is being made with the Pacific cable building at Banfield Creek, B. C. The establishment, which will have its own electric light installation, will be one of the most complete cable stations in the world. The first six miles of the line which is to connect the land cable with the cable have been completed. Banfield Creek, where the cable will land, is a bleak and stormy spot on Vancouver Island, but the operators will be comfortably housed.

ARNOTT WHITE'S

DISAPPEARANCE

Remains as Much a Mystery as Ever.

PARENTS ARE MUCH CONCERNED

Those Who Saw Him Last Can Give No Indication as to His Whereabouts.

Toronto, Aug. 14.—Nothing was learned yesterday by the police throw any light on the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Arnott White. His parents are as greatly concerned as ever with regard to him, and are in no better position to understand his behavior.

David L. White, father of the missing lad, said he made diligent inquiries about him during the day, with no result. It had been supposed that Arnott had taken a train for Chicago or some other point in the west, and that he was in the use of his father's name in "working his way."

Mr. White asked the conductors running trains to the west, as well as those for the east, whether they had seen or heard anything of the young man, and an answer in the negative was returned in each case. A similar question was put to the captain of one of the Niagara steamers, on which Arnott White had traveled a few weeks ago, but nothing had been seen of him there.

Arnott's disappearance has been a mystery since he was last seen on the morning of August 10, when he was seen by a group of boys in the vicinity of the Gurney foundry, while the latter was engaged in his work. To these boys he was likely to confide any plans he might have made regarding a change of employment. These lads were not sure, but they had never seen him since that time.

BARRICADING THE SCHOOLS

Thirteen Remain Unclosed in One District—Troops Asked For to Enforce Law.

Brest, France, Aug. 13.—Soldiers have been requisitioned in several places in Finistere, during the past two or three days to protect police commissaires engaged in closing religious schools, from threatening crowds.

Thirteen schools belonging to White sisters remained unclosed in Finistere. A battalion of infantry and a strong body of mounted gendarmes are expected at St. Meen, Folgoet and Plouduan to overawe the excited population of those towns.

The inhabitants of Folgoet are engaged today in building walls of masonry behind the principal door of the church school.

At St. Meen scouts on horseback, bicycles and even on motorcycles, are on the lookout for the police. The peasants declare they will
