THE COUNTWinter Pitches Swell Ball,
Support Falls Him In Pinches.

Detroit, Sept. 20.—Jack Chesbro held the Tigers to one run yesterday, while the Yankees were taking advantage of the local substitute's bad plays and scoring five tallies. George Winter twirled for the Tigers, and, with good support, would have pitched shutout ball, but his hard luck hoodoo was still with him.

To begin with, Charley Schmidt was sick and Jennings sent in Payne, who has not worked for several months. Payne proved away off form and was taken out, Schmidt, despite his illness, again taking up his work behind the plate. Killifer weakened at third, pulling off another bad throw, and Jennings again changed his defence, placing Schaefer on third, and his new man, Bush, at short. From then on the Tigers played fast, clean ball.

Bush O. K.

It looks as though the present combination he has will go through the rest of the season. It is the best he has tried so far. Bush only had one chance in the field, but he handled the ball nicely. At the plate he walked once and made a hit, a grounder to first that he beat out with swell speed.

Winter pitched splendid ball, but it was not in the cards for him to win. Four of his five runs came in the fourth innings as the result of bad throws to the bases and fielding errors.

Four Hits.

Chesbro held the champs to four hits and but one of them was clean. The spitball artist was given sensational support by his defence. Ball at short was especially strong, robbing the Tigers of several hits by his great fielding and throwing. Gardner, at second, pulled off one play, and Blair, behind the bat, did good work.

The Tigers never had a chance against Chesbro. In the second inning Rossman made the only clean drive of the day, a single to left, but he was left stranded. In the seventh, the only other round in which they did any hitting, infield drives by Cobb and Schmidt scored the one run that prevented a shutout.

The toughest kind of luck for Winter and the poorest of play by the Tigers gave the Yankees their big lead. The score:

A correspondent writes to the London Times to suggest that the considerable number of artists whose works are accepted for the Royal Academy, but not hung through lack of space, might have their names printed on the backs of the catalogue as some slight mitigation of their hard fate.

CURRENT SPORTING GOSSIP

BY SOUTHPAW

THE LONDONS got busy again yesterday after their brief holiday, and indulged in a good hard practice at Tecumseh Park. The first signal practice of the season will be held today, and practice will be held every night next week, beginning at 5:30, and continuing until dark. All candidates are requested to report regularly.

MR. R. J. YOUNG, of this city, has in Electa C. and Selecta C., one of the handsomest road teams ever seen in London, and the victory of the handsome pair in their class at the Western Fair, with such horses as those entered by Miss Wilkes and other well-known breeders, was a popular one.

THE EASTERN LEAGUE race now almost completed has in many ways been an uninteresting one, chiefly because the two Canadian teams failed to show in the first division, Baltimore, which will again win the pennant, has taken the raglan only once before.

THE FOLLOWING are the champions of the Eastern League since its inception in 1895:
1895—Springfield. 1902—Toronto.
1896—Providence. 1903—Jersey City.
1897—Syracuse. 1904—Buffalo.
1898—Montreal. 1905—Providence.
1899—Rochester. 1906—Buffalo.
1900—Providence. 1907—Toronto.
1901—Rochester. 1908—Baltimore.

TORONTO NEWS: Here at the Woodbine this fall there are scores of "men now," who in the dim past were heroes in their youth, and have often become intoxicated with the roars of applause that beat upon their ears.

Snapper Garrison, possibly one of the great jockeys in a finish the world ever saw, a man who, as a boy, was written about more than any living pigskin artist, leads the list of "old-timers." You have often had the remark thrown at you: "There's a Garrison finish for you," when the decision at the wire was close. Snapper could draw the finest finishes ever seen on a race track, and yet win. He is here, an owner and trainer, and the great Garrison will, in all probability, saddle a winner in Montibert, and maybe others in the stable will earn brackets.

Few race riders ever lived as great artists as Garrison.

YES, JOY is mostly in anticipation—more especially the kind you garner at the Woodbine. On the way down you have all the winners, and as you walk home all the winners roll past you in hacks.—Telegram.

THE HAZY and beleaguered atmosphere surrounding the preliminary doings in the football world is gradually clearing.

T. A. A. Cs. are out in force these days getting very busy with the pigskin. Their list is long and general showing is pleasing the men who handle them. No credence is placed in the rumor that the club will not enter the O. R. F. U. in football circles.

Dr. Wood himself denies it. Exhibition matches will undoubtedly be played, because the club isn't in the game simply for appearances, but the senior series of the union will see the T. A. A. Cs. just about as busy as the next ones.—Exchange.

WOULD SOME one please arise and tell us where pure amateurism stops and the "semi" grade of professionalism begins to creep in? Here we have the Jersey City Baseball Club trying to bolster up its finances by holding an amateur athletic meet.

And this meet is said to hold a sanction from the A. A. U., and to have prominent members of the Yankee Olympic team as its gate-drawers. Isn't this a nice mixture? Amateur athletes making money for a business proposition like a professional ball team? What is the difference between making a few dollars for yourself and making it for somebody else?—Exchange.

Pennant Dope at a Glance

Matters in the big league races are rapidly coming to a climax, and interest is accordingly increasing. Baltimore having practically clinched the Eastern League championship, and New York having a big lead in the National League race, chief interest is centred in the result of the American League contests. Detroit holds the lead by the narrow margin of ten points.

London fans are most loyal to the Tigers, but despite this fact many wagers are being made that Detroit does not win the pennant. Leaving

THE N. Y. GIANTS
TAKE TWO MOREThe National League Leaders
Cinch Their Position by Double Victory.

New York, Sept. 18.—Before a crowd said to be the largest in the history of baseball, New York took a big jump toward the winning of the National League pennant by taking both games of a double-header with Pittsburgh Friday. Hard hitting by the leaders was a feature of both games.

Mathewson pitched a masterly game in the first battle, allowing but five hits and not passing a man. Pittsburgh failed to score and the final score was 7 to 0 in the locals' favor.

In the second game Pittsburgh brought the bat heavily into play, scoring four times in the first three innings and knocking Witte out of the box and tallying three runs in the eighth. New York, however, had already rolled up a total of 12 runs, having disposed of two of Pittsburgh's boxmen, Camnitz and Leever, making the result 12 to 7. Both games were marked by sharp and generally clean hitting. Scores:
