Arrangements Completed for Large Crowd at Aviation Meet on Holiday.

The aviation meet on May 24 is creating great interest. The management announce that the more important events will be immediately in front of the stand. Only those occupying grandstand seats will be able to fully enjoy the meet, as very little of the real work will be discernible to those outside the stands.

Beckwith Havens, one of the Curtiss "Birdmen," was in the city yesterday, and stated that conditions at Queen's Park were ideal for successful flying, and that persons in the grandstand would certainly be afforded an excellent view of the machine and operator.

Beckwith Havens is one of Newport's and New York's social elite, who first learned to fly "just for the sport there was in it," but later owing to his success and skill, was induced to give exhibitions.

As a tribute to Mr. Havens's ability as an aviator, he was chosen by Glenn H. Curtiss to demonstrate his new military aeroplane, built for the army and navy, at the three successful and brilliant trial flights, held under rigid requirements, which were designed to tax to the utmost any avia-tor's skill, the machine was purchased by the war department, through Capt.
Paul W. Beck.

In addition to the aeroplane flights, there will be motorcycle speed tests and a band concert by the Seventh Regiment. Many visitors are coming from nearby places, and it is anticipated that the stands will be well filled.

Victoria Day Excursions.

For the convenience of the public, and to avoid the rush at the depot, the Grand Trunk Ticket Office, at "Clock Corner," will be open this evening for the sale of Victoria Day excursion tickets. R. E. RUSE, C. P. and T. A.

The annual May meeting of the London District of the Methodist Church was adjourned yesterday afternoon for a year, and it will then meet in Askin Street Church, London South. The result of the vote on church union was received by the meeting, and will be forwarded to the general conference without any action by the district meeting. The vote was as follows:

For. Against. No. of Votes Possible.

Members Official Boards 268 43 450

Members Over 18 Years 2365 281 3,641

Members Under 18 Years 398 34 583

Adherents 646 47 697

Totals 4377 405 5,371

and shows an overwhelming majority in favor of union.

The reports of the different circuits of the district show that the number of church members this year is 8,670, which is $8 more than last year. The contributions for the year amount to $145,822, an increase of $30,268 over the previous year. This total includes $17,561 for missions, and $6,482 for the educational fund.

A motion to connect the congregations of Kensington Avenue Church and Empress Avenue Church was defeated, and a committee of six, three from First Church and three from Empress Avenue, will report on this matter at the next district meeting. The separation of Memorial Church from First Church was recommended to the general conference. The union of the Byron Church was recommended to the general conference, and a superintendent and an assistant were sanctioned.

Rev. John Agnew was elected as representative to the stationing committee, and Mr. N. Beal was re-elected corresponding secretary of the district. The meeting was addressed by Mrs. Wray, the district organizer of the Women's Missionary Society, on behalf of that society, and a resolution of sympathy with the work of that organization was passed. Messrs. Fred Manning, Andrew Butt, Gordon Kaiser, Skilling, David Williams and Wilson were recommended to be sent to college. A discussion, caused by the report that the Evelyn Church was to be discontinued, was finally closed by the denial of that report.

The circuit boundaries' committee of the district will be composed of the president of the district meeting, Reverends Barnby and Mahan, and Messrs. E. S. Hunt and J. H. Chapman.
