the day November showed a gain of 2c, but during the last half hour the bear activities became prominent, with the result that the market declined, the close being 1c higher for November, $\frac{5}{26}$ higher for December and $\frac{1}{26}$ c higher for December and $\frac{1}{26}$ c higher for December and $\frac{1}{26}$ c higher for May, July showing weakness and closed $\frac{1}{46}$ c lower.

While the trade volume was not large, a good class of buying was coming out, mainly from exporters, while the pressure was not nearly so heavy as on previous days. Exporters were reported to be buying today to fill orders booked overnight, while some further export trade was reported this morning. Speculative trade was inactive today. Liverpool cables, after opening weaker, closed $\frac{1}{26}$ to $\frac{1}{36}$ to higher for the cash wheat today, all grades with the cash coarse trade was reported worked in as wheat today, all grades with the cash coarse trade was no change in the cash coarse grain situation. The demand, but, the bulk of trade worked was to fill tonnage space. Associated Press Despatch.
Cairo, Egypt, Nov. 22.—The body of Major-Gen. Sir Lee Stack, governorgeneral of the Sudan and sirdar of the Egyptian army, victim of assassins, was laid to rest today amid scenes made impressive by military display and solemnity. Huge crowds lined the streets, held back by troops who guarded the route of the cortege, while at All Saints' church, where the services were held, a distinguished gathering was present. In this company were Field Marshal Viscount Allenby, British high commissioner in Egypt, and Lady Allenby; former Premier Asquith, who is on a tour of Egypt; Prime Minister Zagloul Pasha of the Egyptian government, the members of the Egyptian cabinet and the entire diplomatic corps in full regalia, as well as the leading representatives of every foreign community in Cairo.

Amery Makes Known Stand of the Present Conservative Government.

HOME TRAINING

Associated Press Despatch London, Nov. 22 .- Prohibition of the manufacture and sale of alcoholic iquors will not promote temperance. and social problems are not solved in prompting legislation which would by drastic measures, which "destroy the freedom and real temperance of the majority of the people," in the opinion of the members of the Bald win government, as voiced by Lieut. Col. I., C. Amery, secretary for the colonies, at a meeting in Birmington today at which he outlined the at-titude of the new administration to ertain licensing problems with which certain deensing problems with which it is confronted. The government and the Conservative party of Great Britain are not in favor of prohibition, and they are convinced in their attitude by the experience of the United States.

The colonial secretary said that during the life of the present government the question of the very heavy burdens of taxation which the in the city awaiting admittance would call for the most serious con papers to the United States, where sideration of the chancellor of the papers to the United States, where he will take an engineering course at exchequer. The government felt that Michigan in Ann it could not deal with social problem in a crude and rudimentary fashio lled the world.

Speaking of conditions in his sweeping the trade away altogethe rise to the pitch of a national decree abolishing the production of alcoholic liquor, they did not promote rea temperance or approach any near to the solution of their problems.

Col. Amery said that his party was opposed to the drastic measure
