LOCAL AND DISTRICT.

Yesterday was pay day at the City Hall. Mr. John Fulcher, of Detroit, is at the Tecumseh.

Maple sugar is again met with in the local market.

The Fire Department answered four calls in February.

Diphtheria was reported at 147 Hill street yesterday morning.

The street cars were running on all the company's lines yesterday afternoon.

The annual meeting of the London Rowing Club will be held on Friday evening, March 9.

The long-lost Chas. Haggaboom, of Port Burwell, who was supposed to have been lost in Lake Huron, has been located at Thessalon, Algoma.

Court London City will tender a complimentary supper to High Chief Ranger C. E. Britton on the occasion of his visit here on Monday evening next.

Rev. Dr. Pierson and Rev. Dr. Gordon, the distinguished advocates of foreign missions, left for Detroit at noon yesterday to attend the convention of mission workers there.

For the two months ending yesterday 86 births, 41 marriages and 108 deaths were registered at the City Clerk's office. The death rate still keeps well in advance of the births.

The Police Magistrate enlarged the hearing of the assault case of Harris against McDowell yesterday morning for a week. Particulars of the case have already appeared.

Two popular St. Thomases—Miss Jennie G., daughter of Wm. Biston, and John McLean, barrister, were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's father on Tuesday evening.

A meeting of all the Councils of the Canadian Order of Chosen Friends is to be held in Duffield Block on Monday evening, 5th March, for the purpose of tendering a reception to the Grand officers.

The death of Ellis B. Morgan, of London West, took place Tuesday evening. Deceased was in his 34th year. He leaves a wife and two children, and two brothers, Police Sergeant Morgan of the City Police Force, and Rev. Henry Morgan, of Sarnia Township.

McTaggart, the Yarmouth Township man who ran away some time ago, made a haul out of this city. He sold one law firm a lot of forged notes, and managed to borrow $1,500 from another firm on false pretences, calling himself by the name of a wealthy farmer in Caradoc. McTaggart is now safe in the land of Uncle Sam.

While Officer Livingston was passing the boarding house of Mrs. Lyons, at Windsor, he saw flames inside and turned in an alarm. The department arrived in quick order, and found every one in the house fast asleep. They broke in the windows and extinguished the fire almost before the inmates were aware that there was one.

The committee of the Windsor School Board on the selection of teachers have filled the place vacant by the resignation of Miss Bailett. There were forty applications and from these the committee selected three names. Three ballots were taken and each got two votes, and then the names were placed in a hat and the secretary drew out the slip with Miss Lloyd's name on.

It is rumored that Senior Major Beattie, of the Seventh Battalion, does not desire the promotion to the command of the regiment. He will probably retain his present position, however.

The officer mentioned as likely to succeed Lt.-Col. Payne is Major A. M. Smith, formerly connected with the Seventh, and a very popular officer. Should his appointment be brought about it would be received with general favor among the members of the Battalion and citizens generally.

Nearly 250 delegates to the Students' Voluntary Mission Convention passed through here yesterday at noon over the G. T. H. to Detroit. A stop of ten minutes was made here for lunch, which was served at the G. T. H. dining rooms. The party were joined here by Messrs. T. A. McDougall, W. H. Mackney, G. Munro, F. W. E. Wilson, A. M. Campbell and R. Y. Ferguson, all students of the London Medical School. Mr. Gould, of Toronto, but whose parents home in this city, was among the party. Mr. Gould is a volunteer for the work in Africa.

On the 4th of last August, Margie, the 9-year-old daughter of John Sherman, of Walkerville, while crossing the Grand Trunk Railway tracks at Second street, Walkerville, was run over by a Grand Trunk Railroad train, and her legs were mangled in such a manner that both had to be amputated. It was claimed that the rates were not down over the G. T. H. to Detroit. A stop of ten minutes was made here for lunch, which was served at the G. T. H. dining rooms.
