WORKS OF

REV. HENRY HARRIS.

Dr. GUTHRIE, writing of Mr Harris's works, declared that the author possessed "a descriptive power of no common order." All of his books are marked by a beauty of style and a spirit of fervent piety. The Montreal Witness said: "The style of the author is wonderfully picturesque, and the chastened imagination of the writer is displayed in every part."

A THRILLING BOOK!

Stories From Indian Wigwams AND NORTHERN CAMP-FIRES.

BY

EGERTON RYERSON YOUNG,

Author of "By Canoe and Dog-Train among the Cree and Salteaux Indians," etc.

Cloth, Illustrated, $1.25.

The graphic recital of the experiences of the intrepid missionary while in our great Northwest, as well as the numerous incidents picked up by him and given in these pages, form the most entertaining reading for our Canadian boys. It is scarcely necessary to say that it has a sale equalled by few of our publications, and in England and the States is having an immense sale.

The Lord's Day Our Sabbath
