NOT IN THE "BOOK TRUST."

THE statement has been widely circulated, probably by parties who wished it might be true, that John B. Alden, Publisher, of New York, Chicago, and Atlanta, had joined the "Book Trust," which is trying to monopolize the publication of standard books and to increase prices from 25 to 100 per cent. Mr. Alden sends us word that he has not joined the Trust, and there is not and never has been any probability of his joining it. The "Literary Revolution" which has accomplished such wonderful results within the last ten years, in popularizing literature of the highest character (no "trash" ever finds place on his list), still goes on. Instead of increasing prices, large reduction in prices has recently been made, particularly on copyright books by American authors. A catalogue of 96 pages is sent free to any applicant. One of the latest issues from his press is "Stanley's Emin Pasha Expedition," by Wauters, a very handsome, large-type, illustrated volume, reduced in price from $2.00 to 50 cents. This work tells a most interesting and complete story, beginning with the conquest of the Soudan, and continuing through years of African exploration, the revolt of the Mahdi, the siege of Khartoum, with the death of Gordon, the return of Dr. Junker, besides the story of Stanley's own adventures, including his successful Relief Expedition. It is one of the best and most complete works issued upon the subject. Send Alden your address and you will receive his 96-page catalogue, and from time to time specimen pages of his new publications. JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, 393 Pearl St., New York, also Chicago and Atlanta.

"KNOWLEDGE:" A NEW WEEKLY MAGAZINE.

Knowledge, a new weekly magazine, occupies a new field, and if it accomplishes what it undertakes, it ought to be indispensable to every owner of a Cyclopaedia. It proposes to answer the almost infinite number of questions upon which one ordinarily consults a Cyclopedia, and fails to find the answer, generally because the Cyclopaedia is not "up to date" --it was published, probably, five years ago, or, mayhap, ten or more years ago. "The world moves," and the most important questions that want answers are of to-day, not of yesterday. For instance, Caprivi succeeds Bismark as Chancellor of Germany; who is Caprivi? How do you pronounce his name? A terrible storm at Apia. Where is that? How do you pronounce it? A revolution in Brazil a few weeks ago. What is the new status; And so on. If you consult any Cyclopaedia, and fail to find the answer to your question, or you find authorities differing, send a postal card to Knowledge, and find your answer in the next week's issue. The magazine is published in handsome and handy form, and a complete index is promised twice a year, with bound volumes at nominal price to its subscribers. A specimen copy of the magazine will be sent free to any applicant. The price, like all the issues of this publisher, is hardly more than nominal—$1.00 a year. JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, 393 Pearl St., New York, also Chicago and Atlanta.
