

by the Pope, and he appoints all the heads of departments, and the Oblate professors of the Faculty ; consequently the future of this noble and grand Institution depends to a great extent on him.

We are happy to have this occasion to thank, in the name of all the past and present students of our Alma Mater, the worthy congregation of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate, for the many and heroic sacrifices of men and money that she has made to accomplish the marvellous work, of which we are so proud.

Long life to the venerable Father to whose wisdom is intrusted the direction of the undertakings of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate.

Ad Multos Annos.

Wisdom sits alone,
 Topmost in heaven ; she is its light--its God ;
 And in the heart of man she sits as high --
 Though grovelling eyes forget her oftentimes,
 Seeing but this world's idols. The pure mind
 Sees her forever ; and in her youth we come
 Filled with her sainted ravishment, and kneel,
 Worshipping God through her sweet altar fires.
 And then is knowledge "good."

WILLIS.

