Supt. Give Lesson Story of Lesson I.

First Single Voice.

The Sabbath before Christ's crucifixion, as he drew near to Jerusalem, he sent two of his disciples into the neighboring Bethany, telling them that they would find a colt tied, whereon never man sat, and they were to loose him and bring him. And if any man were to ask why they did so, they were to answer that the Lord had need of him. They went and found as the Lord had said, and gave the answer he commanded. And they brought the colt to Jesus and cast their garments on him, and Jesus sat upon him and rode thus into Jerusalem, while the accompanying crowd shouted: "Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord."

Jesus, to show the necessity of watchfulness, uses illustrations of the Goodman whose house is robbed, and the servant, left in charge of fellow-servants, who smites them and eats and drinks with the drunken, saying, "My lord delayeth his coming." And as the thief came unexpectedly to the Goodman, and as the lord returned in a day when he looked not for him, so, in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of man cometh.

Supt. Give Lesson Story of Lesson IV.

Fourth Single Voice.

The first day of unleavened bread the disciples asked Jesus where they should prepare to eat the passover. He told them to go into the city, where they would meet a man bearing a pitcher of water; they were to follow him into the house and say to the Goodman, "The Master saith, Where is the guest chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?" He would show them a large upper room furnished, and there they were to make ready. The disciples found as he had said, and made ready the passover. In the evening Jesus came with the twelve. And as they did eat Jesus said, "One of you shall betray me." They began to be sorrowful and to say, "Lord, is it I?" He answered, "It is the one that dipeth with me in the dish." After pronouncing a woe upon the betrayer, he took bread and blessed and brake and gave to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat; this is my body." And he took the cup and gave them to drink, saying, "This is my blood."

Supt. What is the teaching of the lesson?
