

In corresponding with the MESSENGER, it would simplify matters exceedingly, if whatever pertains to money transactions were written on a separate sheet from that containing urgent requests or thanksgivings. Moreover, local secretaries should sum up the requests taken from the intention-box, and not send us an endless number of little scraps of paper to be deciphered.

* *

Though we have repeatedly called attention to the point, many still forget to write the name of the town as well as that of the parish or institution on the Intention Sheets, trusting perhaps to an accompanying letter on other matters, or even to the postmark which is not always legible. As a consequence, no acknowledgment is made.

* *

Even in the case of thanksgivings, when they are sent in for publication, we insist upon their being signed, though the name is not to appear in the MESSENGER. We do not think we are justified in publishing them when they are anonymous.

SURSUM CORDA.

LIFE is only bright when it proceedeth
 Towards a deeper, truer life above;
 Human love is sweetest when it leadeth
 To a more Divine and perfect love.

ADELAIDE PROCTOR.
