ERRATUM.--In our Ottawa correspondent's letter on Dominion Legislation of last Session, in our last number, we regret several printer's mistakes occur. "l'Original time" should read "L'Original time"; in the quotation from Hamlet, "thrive" is inserted for "shove"; and in the fifth line following the quotation, for "taxation" read "lesion."

Law Society of Upper Canada.

LAW SCHOOL--HILARY TERM, 1890.

This notice is designed to afford necessary information to Students-at-Law and Articled Clerks, and those intending to become such, in regard to their course of study and examinations. They are, however, also recommended to read carefully in connection herewith the Rules of the Law Society which came into force

June 25th, 1889, and September 21st, 1889, respectively, copies of which may be obtained from the Secretary of the Society, or from the Principal of the Law School.

Those Students-at-Law and Articled Clerks, who, under the Rules, are required to attend the Law School during all the three terms of the School Course, will pass all their examinations in the School, and are governed by the School Curriculum only. Those who are entirely exempt from attendance in the School will pass all their examinations under the existing Curriculum of The Law Society Examinations as heretofore. Those who are required to attend the School during one term or two terms only will pass the School Examination for such term or terms, and their other Examination or Examinations at the usual Law Society Examinations under the existing Curriculum.

Provision will be made for Law Society Examinations under the existing Curriculum as formerly for those students and clerks who are wholly or partially exempt from attendance in the Law School.

CURRICULUM OF THE LAW SCHOOL.

The School is established by the Law Society of Upper Canada, under the provisions of rules passed by the Society with the assent of the Visitors.

Its purpose is to promote legal education by affording instruction in law and legal subjects to all Students entering the Law Society.

The course in the School is a three years' course. The term commences on the fourth Monday in September and closes on the first Monday in May; with a vacation commencing on the Saturday before Christmas and ending on the Saturday after New Year's Day.

Students before entering the School must have been admitted upon the books of the Law Society as Students-at-Law or Articled Clerks. The steps required to procure such admission are provided for by the rules of the Society, numbers 126 to 141 inclusive.

The School term, if duly attended by a Student-at-Law or Articled Clerk is allowed as part of the term of attendance in a Barrister's chambers or service under articles.

By the Rules passed in September, 1889, Students-at-Law and Articled Clerks who are entitled to present themselves either for their First or Second Intermediate Examination in any Term before Michaelmas Term, 1890, if in attendance or under service in Toronto are required, and if in attendance or under service elsewhere than in Toronto, are permitted, to attend the Term of the School for 1889-90, and the examination at the close thereof, if passed by such Students or Clerks shall be allowed to them in lieu of their First or Second Intermediate
