I LONG TO BE THERE.

BY NEY. B. M. NEVIN.

I have read of a world of beauty.
Where there is no gloomy night;
Where lore is the main spring of duty.
And God the fountain of light;
And I long to be there i

I have read of its flowing river,
That bursts from beneath the throne.
And the beautiful trees that ever
Are found on its banks alone;
And I long to be there!

I have read of the myriad choir
Of the angels harping there;
Of their holy love that burns like fire.
And the shining robes they wear;
And I long to be there!

I have read of the sanctified throng
That passed from earth to heaven,
And now unite in the loudest song
Of praise for their sins forgiven;
And I long to be there?

I have read of their freedom from sin, And suffering and sorrow too;
And the holy joy they feel within
As their risen Lord they view;
And I long to be there!

I long to rise to that world of light, And to breathe its balmy air; long to walk with the Lamb in white, And to shout with the angels there, O, I long to be there! Gospel Messenger.

Town, Prince Edward's Island, dated 17th Nov. 1854. To Professor Holloway.

Sir.—I am hoppy to say that your Pills have restored me to health after scalering for nine years from the most intense general debility and languor, me liver and bowels were also much deranged for the whole of that time. I were also much deranged for the whole of that time. I tried many medicines, but they were of no good to me, until had recourse to your Pills, by taking which, and following the printed directions for seven weeks. I was curred, after every other means failed, to the astonishmen of my reighbours, acquaintances, and friends. I shall ever feel grateful to you for this astonishing restoration to health, and will recommend your Pills to all aufterers, feeling it my duty to do so.
