The Proper

epilogue to lunch is one of our LA CADENA Cigars, while that feeling of well-being which follows a comfortable dinner at home or at the club is greatly enhanced by that other clear Havana—LA FLORA.
The banker, the merchant, the insurance man or the lawyer who would enjoy a refreshing and fragrant smoke should always keep a supply of these two brands. You may recommend them to your most exacting friends without fear of the slightest reflection upon your reputation and judgment as a smoker.

Satisfactory results, at less expense, may also be had from any of the following :

FL PADR -
MADRE E HIJO
CABLE EXTRA
KICKER
MUNG

They are standard brands, and general favorites with good judges.

Mercantile Summary.

We learn with interest that the energetic Mr. A. W. Spooner of Port Hope has been admitted as a partner in the firm of Samuel Rogers & Co., of the Queen City Oil Company, Toronto, and that he will be an active member of that firm. His copperine business is continued, however, just the same as usual, in Port Hope, and Mr. Samuel Bennett is to be manager of it.

An increase of fifty per cent. is shown in the number of passengers carried on the Montreal street railway last month as compared with December, 1891, even although the month was a difficult one in which to operate because of the heavy snow falls. The figures are 1,236,482 passengers last month, 766,990 passengers in December previous; increase, therefore, nearly 40 per cent.

The Port Arthur, Duluth and Western Railway Company gave some guests a special trip over the company's new line from Port Arthur to Gun Flint recently. The line, which was chartered some nine years ago, was commenced in August, 1890, and it is now completed. It is ninety-one miles in length, of which eighty-five are in Canada and six in Minnesota. It has cost to date, according to a Port Arthur despatch, something like $1,350,000, and was built by Messrs. Middleton & Conmee, the financial backing being furnished by Messrs. Lee & Leys, of Rice Lewis & Son, and Eby, Blain & Company, Toronto. The town at the boundary was yesterday named Leebtain by the railway company's guests.
