"The Index threatens to be a serious rival of The Nation, or rather to supersede it altogether, now that the latter paper is only the annex of the Post. It has had a life of four years already, and measures are now being taken to secure for it the larger circulation of which it is well worthy."—The Examiner, New York.

"I am very much pleased with the Index. You have struck a note of dignity, earnestness, fairness, and cleanness, that places your paper above all American educational journals known to me. The sobriety of your style, and your unvarying freedom from sensationalism are very refreshing to one who wanders somewhat weary in the weed-grown fields of school literature."—Principal Samuel Thurber, A.M., Boston.

LITERATURE,
SCIENCE,
AND THE ARTS,

An Independent Journal of Liberal Education, under the editorial direction of Alexander Winchell, Charles K. Adams, and William H. Payne, professors in the University of Michigan, and Charles H. J. Douglas, instructor in the University of Wisconsin.

* * * The Index occupies its own peculiar field in education, supplementing and completing the work of the best State educational journals, and serving, in a broad sense, the general cause of liberal education throughout the country. It discusses in a scholarly way a wide range of educational themes of vital importance to every intelligent thinker and member of society. Its field is broad, but its aim is definite. Its spirit is catholic, but its convictions are decided.

* * * The Index is of great value to scientific readers on account of the widely varying lines of work of its scientific contributors, and the consequent catholicity of its tone. Among well-known scientists that have recently contributed to its pages, or are soon to do so, are Professors Edward A. Birge, Ph.D., Edward J. James, Ph.D., William Trelease, S.D., Charles A. Van Velsor, A.M., Henry C. Adams, Ph.D., Frederic W. Staebner, George H. French, Henry H. Belfield, Ph.D., John E. Davies, M.D., Charles O. Thompson, Ph.D., G. Stanley Hall, Ph.D., Henry Sewall, Ph.D., Horatio N. Chute, S.M., Herbert B. Adams, Ph.D., Stephen N. Fellows, D.D., William T. Harris, LL.D., and others.

* * * The publishers solicit the subscription of every person interested in the continued success of an independent exponent of liberal culture, of such distinctive breadth and soundness as hitherto have not been characteristic of any American educational journal.

"The Index has my warmest sympathy. It is doing a grand work for education in this country."—Prof. Herbert B. Adams, Ph.D., Baltimore.

"The Fortnightly Index continues a well-edited journal of liberal education. Its tone is thoughtful and suggestive, and it is rapidly becoming the recognized medium of communication between the leading thinkers of our country."—Jewish Messenger, New York.

"One of the most valuable periodicals which comes to us among our exchanges is the Fortnightly Index. It is always thoughtful, candid and scholarly, and deals not only with questions of pure scholarship, but with many of the issues of the day, in a spirit of the highest intelligence."—The Christian Union, New York.
