

Type of data	Response
1	2
1. Presence of chemical weapons on own territory.	Yes. The chemical weapons stocks in the USSR do not exceed 50,000 tonnes of poisonous substances.
Possession of chemical weapons on territory of another State.	No.
2. Aggregate number of facilities for the production and storage of chemical weapons and for the production, processing and consumption of chemicals in Schedules [1], [2] and [3] above thresholds to be determined. */	101 **/
3. Types and names of chemical warfare agents produced.	The Soviet Union ceased producing chemical weapons in 1987.
Types of chemical warfare munitions stored; chemical warfare agents stored in bulk.	Blister agents: Mustard gas, Lewisite. Nerve agents: Sarin, soman, VX. Aerial chemical warfare munitions: Chemical bombs; chemical spraying devices. Chemical munitions for missiles or artillery: Chemical warheads; chemical tube-artillery munitions. Chemical rocket missiles.

*/ The question of information on toxic chemicals not listed in Schedules [1], [2] or [3] that might be relevant to the Convention requires further consideration pending further work on the matter.

/ Subject to adjustment.