

ARTICLE V

- (1) Nuclear material shall remain subject to this Agreement until:
 - (a) it is determined that it is no longer usable or practicably recoverable for processing into a form in which it is usable for any nuclear activity relevant from the point of view of safeguards referred to in Article IV of this Agreement. Both Parties shall accept a determination made by the International Atomic Energy Agency in accordance with the provisions for the termination of safeguards of the relevant safeguards agreement to which the Agency is a party,
 - (b) it has been transferred from the territory of the recipient Party accordance with the provisions of Article III paragraph 2 of this Agreement, or
 - (c) otherwise agreed between the Parties.
- (2) Material and equipment shall remain subject to the provisions of this Agreement until:
 - (a) they have been transferred from the territory of the recipient Party in accordance with the provisions of Article III paragraph 2 of this Agreement, or
 - (b) otherwise agreed between the Parties.
- (3) Technology shall remain subject to the provisions of this Agreement until otherwise agreed between the Parties.

ARTICLE VI

- (1) Each Party shall take all measures necessary, commensurate with the assessed threat prevailing from time to time, to ensure the physical security of nuclear material subject to this Agreement and shall, as a minimum, apply levels of physical protection as set out in Annex E to this Agreement.
- (2) The Parties shall inform each other promptly of any losses of items subject to the provisions of this Agreement, except for characteristic process losses of material or nuclear material.

ARTICLE VII

- (1) The Parties shall consult at any time at the request of either Party to ensure the effective fulfillment of the obligations of this Agreement. The International Atomic Energy Agency may be invited to participate in such consultations upon the request of the Parties.
- (2) The appropriate governmental authorities shall establish administrative understandings to facilitate the implementation of this Agreement and shall consult annually. Such annual consultations may take the form of an exchange of correspondence.
- (3) Each Party shall, upon request, inform the other Party of the main conclusions of the most recent report by the International Atomic Energy Agency on its verification activities in the territory of that Party relevant to the nuclear material subject to the provisions of this Agreement.
